SUPERVISOR’S PROGRESS REPORT

LLM by Minor Thesis

The supervisor should submit this report to the Graduate Studies Office by:

Name of Supervisor/s:

Name of Candidate:

Title of Thesis:

Thesis Start Date: Thesis Due Date:

Enrolment Status: Part-time

NB: Supervisors should note that their reports are documents to which the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 apply and that, once the examination process is complete, their reports will be accessible to any person seeking access under the Act.

1. Is the candidate consulting you on a regular basis?
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................

2. Is the candidate experiencing any difficulties with regard to the writing of his/her thesis?
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................

3. Is it expected that the candidate will complete his/her thesis by the required completion date?
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................
   ............................................................................................................................
SUPERVISOR’S PROGRESS REPORT

LLM by Minor Thesis

The supervisor should submit this report to the Graduate Studies Office by:

Name of Supervisor/s:

Name of Candidate:

Title of Thesis:

Thesis Start Date:

Thesis Due Date:

Enrolment Status:

NB: Supervisors should note that their reports are documents to which the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 apply and that, once the examination process is complete, their reports will be accessible to any person seeking access under the Act.

1. Is the candidate consulting you on a regular basis?

2. Is the candidate experiencing any difficulties with regard to the writing of his/her thesis?

3. Is it expected that the candidate will complete his/her thesis by the required completion date?