

2018 GAOKAO UNDERGRADUATE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Gaokao students who meet the higher Tier One university cut off score for their province will meet the academic requirements for entry to all Monash University degrees (except Dean's Scholars courses, Law courses, Pharmaceutical Science Advanced (Honours) and Bachelor of Medical Science and Doctor of Medicine).

Students who meet the lower Tier One university Gao Kao cut off score for their province will meet the academic requirements for entry to a selected range of Monash University degrees as outlined in Table 2 below.

Students who meet the higher Tier Two university Gao Kao cut off score for their province will meet the academic requirements for entry to a selected range of Monash University degrees as outlined in Table 3 below.

In addition to meeting the Gao Kao academic entry score, all students must meet prerequisite and extra requirements for their chosen Monash University undergraduate degree.

To view prerequisite and extra requirements for Monash University undergraduate degrees refer to the Find a Course at monash.edu

Students who do not meet English language requirements for their preferred degree may need to consider Monash English language courses offered through Monash College.

Students who achieve scores lower than the higher Tier Two university Gao Kao cut off scores may meet the academic requirements for entry into Monash College Diploma Part 2 and Monash University Foundation Year.

For those students without Gaokao, Monash College continues to accept students into Diploma or Monash University Foundation Year courses with Gao Er or Gao San results.

Importantly, Monash College also helps students build the study skills needed to succeed at a Top 100 internationally ranked university.
