Vera Moore Fund Regulations

Made by the Monash University Council

1. A fund entitled 'The Vera Moore Fund for the Creative and Performing Arts' shall be established, and the income of the fund shall be applied in accordance with these regulations in such manner and in such amounts as the faculty board of the Faculty of Arts, acting on the advice of the committee referred to in section 3, may from time to time think appropriate in the furtherance of the purposes of the fund.

2. The purpose of the fund is to provide within the Faculty of Arts such support for the creative and performing arts as may enhance the teaching of those departments in the faculty which are concerned with the understanding and criticism of those arts.

3. There shall be a committee of the faculty board of the Faculty of Arts, entitled The Vera Moore Fund Committee, consisting of:

   3.1 the dean;
   3.2 the associate dean;
   3.3 three other members of the faculty appointed from time to time by the faculty board.

4. Subject to these regulations, the functions of the committee shall be:

   4.1 to receive and consider applications for financial support for activities proposed by members of the faculty;
   4.2 to make recommendations on the allocation of the income;
   4.3 to take reasonable steps to ensure that in any activity supported by the fund proper acknowledgement be made in programs or any other publicity.

5. The income and the capital of the fund shall be made available by the Council to the faculty board to be applied by it for the purposes of these regulations.

6. The Council:

   6.1 may invest both the capital and any unexpended income of the fund in any form of investment it thinks fit, whether an authorised trustee investment or not; and
   6.2 on the recommendation of the faculty board, may from time to time accumulate any part or parts of the income of the fund, may add such accumulations to the capital of the fund, and may subsequently apply the whole or any part of such accumulations as income.
7. While the faculty board shall endeavour to maintain the fund in perpetuity, at any time after 1996 the faculty board may if it thinks necessary, with the approval of the Council, from time to time apply the whole or such parts as it thinks fit of the capital of the fund in the same manner as is provided by these regulations for the application of the income.

8. The Council may vary these regulations from time to time provided that the fund continues to be applied in accordance with the purposes specified in section 2.
