Scope	All campuses All Higher Degree by Research courses All Higher Degree by Research students This policy and its supporting procedures do not cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Termination of enrolment due to a student not meeting their obligations under Part 5 of the Monash University (Vice-Chancellor) Regulations. • The investigation of student misconduct offences under Part 7 of the Monash University (Council) Regulations.
Purpose	This policy and procedures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Define a milestone review framework to support HDR students to undertake research of an appropriate quality, originality and depth as required by their course of study for their approved research project; • Contribute to the maintenance of academic and research quality at the University; • Provide a mechanism to identify and support students who are experiencing progress difficulties in their study program; and • Prevent the waste of academic and research resources that may occur if a student remains enrolled at the University when they are not making satisfactory progress.
POLICY STATEMENT

Principles

1. The University recognises a HDR student's right to reasonable supervisory support and guidance for their study program throughout their enrolment.
2. The University is committed to providing structured progress management to all HDR students to ensure satisfactory progress is being made by the student, by identifying and supporting them to address progress issues which may arise during their enrolment.
3. The University aims to address unsatisfactory student progress or a failure to meet the requirements of their degree as outlined by the Monash University \(Academic Board\) Regulations in a manner that:
 - a. is impartial and fair to all parties involved;

- b. is carried out with transparency;
 - c. is accessible to the student;
 - d. is handled within established timelines;
 - e. respects the privacy of all parties involved;
 - f. is appropriate for dealing with complex and sensitive issues.
4. A student facing termination of enrolment as a result of unsatisfactory progress or failure to meet the requirements of their degree as outlined by the Monash University \(Academic Board\) Regulations has the right to appeal, allowing for a thorough review of the decision based on the principles of this policy.
 5. A student may lodge an appeal without fear of discrimination or victimisation.

Student Responsibilities

6. Students are expected to give serious attention to the importance and mandatory nature of the milestone review framework, preparing appropriately to the best of their ability.
7. Students are expected to treat staff with courtesy and respect at all stages of the process.
8. Students are expected to co-operate with the requirements of a panel constituted to assess their progress or constituted to determine if they are meeting the requirements of their degree.
9. Only the individual student concerned may appeal a decision under this policy.

Roles and responsibilities of University Staff

10. Supervisory staff are responsible for:
 - a. ensuring that students are aware of the requirements of each milestone, and have been provided with sufficient and appropriate written feedback in a timely way prior to the milestone date;
 - b. giving serious consideration to a student's progress as determined by the procedures by acknowledging the importance and mandatory nature of the milestone review framework;
 - c. ensuring the resolution of termination processes within the timeframe prescribed in the procedures supporting this policy.
11. Where staff are appointed to a panel, they must ensure that they:
 - a. make reasonable inquiry or investigation before making a decision, and act in good faith. This includes being free from bias, or the appearance of bias, and making a decision based on a balanced and considered assessment of the information and evidence placed before it;
 - b. ensure the student has been given the opportunity to improve his/her performance or behaviour within a reasonable time where this is required.
12. Monash Graduate Research Office (MGRO) and/or Faculty professional staff are responsible for:
 - a. ensuring that timely and accurate advice regarding procedures is provided;
 - b. maintaining accurate records.
