Scope	This policy applies to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - all staff and students at the Australian campuses of Monash University, off-campus sites and on and off campus residential facilities; - any social activity conducted by or affiliated with Monash University, including student organisation activities; - all staff and students of Monash College Pty Ltd business units on the university's Australian campuses and off campus sites; - all contractors working on the Australian campuses of Monash University, off-campus sites and on and off campus residential facilities; and - all visitors to the Australian campuses of Monash University, off-campus sites and on and off campus residential facilities
Purpose	This policy sets out a framework for the management of alcohol, pharmaceutical and illicit drugs at Monash University in compliance with the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998, Tobacco Act 1987 No. 81 (Vic) and the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004.
POLICY STATEMENT

Monash University is committed to ensuring that any consumption or serving of alcohol on its premises is undertaken in a safe and legal manner. Monash also expects staff and students to comply with Victorian and Australian law regarding drug use. Positive and safe social interaction between staff, students, residents, contractors and visitors is encouraged. In particular the university stipulates that:

- each staff member and student will at all times not be intoxicated by alcohol and/or drugs whilst working or studying at or representing the university;
- those managing events and those partaking in activities ensure conduct that does not put at risk people, property and/or reputation;
- all sale and consumption of alcohol is undertaken in compliance with appropriate legislation;
- students and staff will be subject to civil and criminal laws in relation to their use of alcohol and other drugs as well as university policies and procedures; and
- the development of local policies and procedures for the serving and consumption of alcohol at events by specific groups within the university community will be supported, provided that these are consistent with this policy and related procedures and with liquor licensing laws, OHS and tobacco legislation.

In addition:

- Alcohol or drug abuse is not an excuse for inappropriate behaviour or sub-standard performance, and the university has made a commitment to assist staff who develop drug and alcohol problems through appropriate rehabilitation and support programs as far as is reasonably practicable.

The rights of staff and students to privacy and confidentiality are respected, but this must be balanced with Monash University's duty and responsibility to maintain a safe and healthy workplace for all staff, students, contractors and visitors. If there is a situation where drug and alcohol misuse may contribute to diminished safety, legal or performance outcomes, Monash University will act responsibly to protect its staff, students, Contractors, visitors and the community in which it operates.
