

DESIGNATION OF PERSON TO RECEIVE NOTICES FROM THE CREATOR OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY THAT HAS THE POTENTIAL TO BE COMMERCIALISED

Regulation 29(1) of the Monash University (Vice-Chancellor) Regulations provides that a creator who has created intellectual property that has the potential to be commercialised must, as soon as possible after its creation, give notice of the creation to the person designated by the Vice-Chancellor to receive such notices. The Vice-Chancellor has delegated the power under regulation 29(1) to the Provost & Senior Vice-President.

Edwina Cornish, Provost & Senior Vice-President of Monash University, for the purposes of regulation 29(1) of the Monash University (Vice-Chancellor) Regulations, under the said delegation has designated the following person as the person to receive notices under that regulation:

- The person holding the position of Director Commercialisation, or any successor or replacement position

This designation is effective from 28 May 2014 until the designation is revoked by the Provost or the Provost's successor or by the Vice-Chancellor & President.
