Single Unit Study Application

You can normally apply for no more than 12 credit points of single unit study in a teaching period. For exceptions to this rule, fees (government support is unavailable), application closing dates and other important information, go to single unit study.

When you apply, you need to provide proof of completing prerequisite units (if applicable) and meeting the faculty's minimum English language requirements – Section 3.4 (pdf), as well as a copy of your passport showing your visa or citizenship status.

Make sure to ask the faculty teaching the unit if there are any other entry requirements.
