Education makes the world a better place.

Great teachers can change the world, one student, one classroom, one school at a time. In an education degree you’ll learn as much more than lesson planning and behaviour management. You’ll study the development of learners and how to work with a diverse range of students, and you’ll discover that learning comes in all different forms. Studying an honours degree means you will engage more deeply with educational research and will have the opportunity to reflect on your own teaching practice.

Professional experience plays a large part of an education degree, and at Monash you’ll have work placements every year, to nurture your continued growth and confidence as a teacher.

Professional recognition

To teach in a Victorian school, graduates must be registered with the Victorian Institute of Teachers (VIT). Students planning to register and work as school teachers or early childhood teachers may have a range of criteria.

Bonus points for students planning to register and work as school teachers or early childhood teachers in Australia or overseas should check registration requirements with local teacher regulatory bodies in case additional requirements apply.

Specialisations in early childhood education are accredited by the Australian Children’s Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA). This means that these qualifications will be accepted for early childhood teacher registration in Victoria and most other Australian states and territories, which requires you to work as a teacher in licensed preschools and childcare centres in Victoria. If you plan to teach in a preschool or kindergarten setting then you’ll need to register with the VIT.

All primary and secondary education specialisations (including double degrees) are accredited by the VIT using the national accreditation standards. This means that these qualifications will be accepted for school teacher registration in Victoria and all other Australian states and territories.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

With placements every year during your degree, you’ll be able to apply your skills and knowledge as you learn them.

How do placements work?

Every student will be provided with a minimum 80 days of professional experience (90 days for the Early Childhood and Primary Education specialisation). This is organised by the faculty’s Professional Experience Office (PEO), meaning you don’t have to look for your own placements. Standard placements take place in schools in and around Melbourne, and can be in public or private schools. You’ll usually be placed in a different school for each placement.

Before you start placements, you’ll have a preparation class so you know what to expect when you go to a school, what to wear, where to go, how to act professionally, and much more! You’ll also get lots of support from the university during your placement so you can get the most out of your experience.

International placements

Head overseas on placement to see how teaching and learning works in different cultural settings, and get university credit for your travels. Current international opportunities include China, Cook Islands, England, Italy, Japan, Switzerland, United Arab Emirates, and Vietnam*.

* Subject to change.

Rural and regional placements

Get off the beaten track and choose a placement outside of metropolitan and suburban Melbourne. Head to the centre of Victoria’s Food Bowl in sunny Mildura, or get some fresh seaside air on our Bass Coast placement, and experience learning and teaching in a different setting.

“After doing the Bass Coast placement, working in a rural environment is definitely something I would consider. It’s been awesome.”

JAMIE BLOTT
Bachelor of Education (Honours) in Primary and Secondary Education Current student

“I had a special placement at the Monash Tech School during my degree, and really enjoyed the opportunity to work with new programs and technologies. My eyes were opened to how easily technology can be used to enhance and enrich student learning.”
