

FODMAP Update for dietitians

A practical update workshop for dietitians, CPD assessed, Friday May 30th 2014

Event Program

9.00am	Registration
9:30am	Welcome— Jane Muir
9:35am	IBS – a clinical perspective Dr Rebecca Burgell
10:05am	Key questions to ask in IBS Judith Moore
10:20am	Non-coeliac gluten sensitivity - A new twist Simone Peters
10:40am	Role of Dietary Salicylates in IBS Sree Malakar
11:00am	Morning tea—FODMAP friendly
11:30am	Eosinophilic Esophagitis is increasingly common and responds to dietary modification Hamish Philpott
12:00pm	The Six Food Elimination Diet Caroline Tuck
12:15pm	Lunch– FODMAP friendly
1:10pm	Cooking without FODMAPs Debbie King
1:25pm	How well is the low FODMAP diet travelling? International analysis of food and the new Monash certification program Jane Muir
2:00pm	Effects of FODMAPs on colonic luminal microenvironment Emma Halmos
2:30pm	Re-challenge case studies and burning questions Jacqueline Barrett
3.30pm	Closing remarks - Jane Muir

Venue:

Level 5, The Alfred Centre
99 Commercial Rd, Melbourne 3004
Take the 'B' Lifts to level 5, the lecture theatre is through the glass doors and immediately to the left.
Please arrive at 8:45am to sign in.

Public Transport:

The Alfred Centre can be accessed via the 72 Tram from the City or Camberwell (Stop 27) or is a 10 minute walk from trams 3, 5, 6, 16, 64, 67 that run down St Kilda Rd. Prahran Railway Station is a 10 minute walk from Greville St. The 284 bus also runs down Punt Rd from Richmond Railway Station.

