Purpose	To ensure the University takes a consistent approach to academic integrity among students to protect and enhance the University's reputation and academic standards.
POLICY STATEMENT

Honesty, fairness and respect are central tenets of Monash University, reflected in the Monash University Ethics Statement and the Monash University Student Charter. These principles extend to all areas of the University, including scholarly endeavour.

Monash University is committed to upholding standards of academic integrity and honesty.

Monash students are therefore required to:

- undertake studies and research responsibly and with honesty and integrity;
- ensure that academic work is in no way falsified;
- seek permission to use the work of others, where required;
- acknowledge appropriately the work of others; and
- take reasonable steps to ensure that other students are unable to copy or misuse their work.

Staff involved in learning, teaching and research are expected to display leadership in academic integrity and use a range of approaches to educate students to practise honesty in their academic work.

Plagiarism, collusion and cheating, including assisting others to cheat, are unacceptable and will be dealt with under Part 7 of the Monash University \(Council\) Regulations.
