

INTEGRITY & RESPECT POLICY

PURPOSE

This policy outlines the University's expectations of its staff to contribute to a culture based on ethical and professional conduct.

SCOPE

Staff at the Australian campuses sites and centres of the University.

POLICY STATEMENT

We aspire to the highest level of professional behaviour, respect, integrity and the provision of equal opportunity in our ambition to be Excellent, International, Enterprising and Inclusive.

Our community comes from diverse backgrounds. This diversity is celebrated and we respect the human rights of all individuals to participate in an environment where conduct is professional, equitable, and free from discrimination, intimidation, harassment (including sexual harassment), bullying or abuse.

Conduct consistent with a professional and ethical culture is expected from everyone working, studying or participating in our community. We expect you to act ethically, fairly, transparently and with generosity of spirit. You are also expected to interact with other staff, students and participants in our community with courtesy and respect.

Our policy and procedures explain to you our professional behaviour expectations.

We treat any breach of our policies or procedures seriously. We encourage reporting of concerns of non-compliance and manage compliance in accordance with the applicable Enterprise Agreement, student conduct rules or contract terms.
