SCOPE

This policy applies to staff and the associated workforce of the University.

For the purpose of this policy, references to ‘the University’ includes Monash University Australia, Monash University Malaysia, Monash University Indonesia, Monash Suzhou and the Monash University Prato Centre, unless indicated otherwise.

POLICY STATEMENT

Monash University aspires to the highest level of professional behaviour, respect and integrity which is underpinned by equal opportunity in our ambition to be Excellent, International, Enterprising and Inclusive.

Our policy and procedures explain how we demonstrate our values and define expected standards of behaviours. Overarchingly, staff and our associated workforce are expected to:

- conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner;
- ensure participation is fair, inclusive, transparent and done so with generosity of spirit;
- support an equitable environment which is free from discrimination, intimidation, harassment (including sexual harassment), bullying or abuse; and
- support the academic freedom and freedom of speech principles as detailed in the Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom Policy.

The University treats any breach of its policies, procedures and schedules seriously; it encourages reporting of concerns about non-compliance, and manages compliance in accordance with the applicable Enterprise Agreement, relevant instrument of appointment and/or applicable contract terms. A failure to comply with University policies may result in action by the University. Such action may include disciplinary and other action up to and including potential termination of employment for employees, or the cessation of engagements with the University for other persons.
