1

GYM, MONSU, STUDENT LOUNGES

Located in the S building on level 1, you will find the Health and Fitness centre that has dedicated cycle and group fitness studios. Level 2 is the Student Union area, home to MONSU Caulfield, student lounges and some shops to browse through.

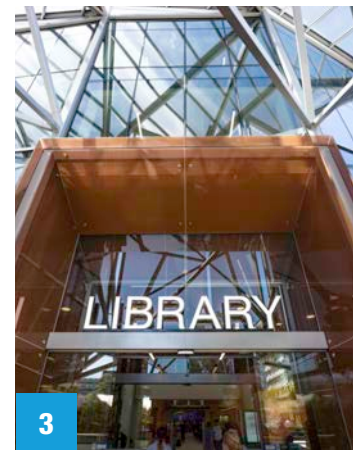

2

SENSILAB

The Sensilab located in Building G is a technology-driven, design-focused research lab. It operates under Monash's Faculty of Information Technology and is housed in the Monash Art, Design and Architecture building

Facilities include immersive visualisation spaces, sound and imaging studios, fabrication areas, a wet lab and a dedicated deep learning supercomputer.

3

LIBRARY

The Caulfield Library has undergone significant renovations recently. Located in Building A over levels 1 through to 4, it provides scholarly resources, study facilities, and research skills development programs. The library also houses some great collections across a variety of topics, so be sure to check them out next time you visit.

4

CAMPUS GREEN

The Campus Green area is now the well-recognised centrepiece of Caulfield campus. It is home to basketball courts, table tennis tables, a lawn and terrace, and the soundshell. Students and staff come together to play sport, listen to concerts, relax with friends or study in this central area.

5

JOURNALISM LAB

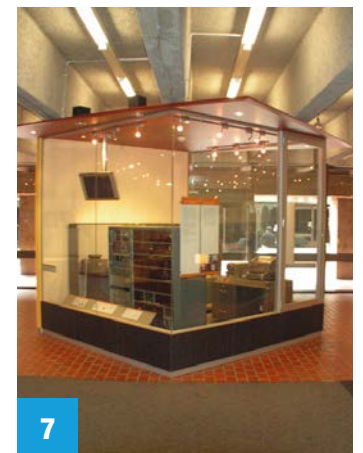

The media lab can be found in Building B on level 5. It's part of the Faculty of Arts' School of Media, Film and Journalism and is full of various resources available to students.

6

MUMA

MUMA (Monash University Museum of Art) is located on the Ground Floor of Building F. MUMA is a contemporary art museum committed to innovative, experimental and research-based contemporary art and curatorial practice. It's open Tuesday to Saturday and has strong links to both the local and international community.

7

MUSEUM OF COMPUTING HISTORY

If you find yourself in the foyer on level 2 of Building B, you will find yourself at the Museum of Computing History. The museum explores computer technology and the ongoing impact it has on our lives. You can visit this engaging exhibit whenever Building B is open
