Strengthening education
The Library is your partner in education, contributing a range of services, resources and programs to strengthen teaching and learning. monash.edu/library

Information research and learning skills
Contact your librarian or learning skills adviser to develop a program that will meet the information research and learning skills needs of students through the curriculum. monash.edu/library/skills/contacts

Discovering resources
The Library has extensive print and online resources discoverable through Search. monash.edu/library/search

Reading lists
The Library creates online reading lists that provide students with copyright compliant access to unit material. Purchase and digitisation of materials and special access conditions for popular items are arranged. monash.edu/library/contacts/rss.html

Copyright advice
The Monash University Copyright Adviser, located within the Library, can provide practical advice on managing copyright compliance within learning and teaching activities and can work with you to develop a copyright education program for your students. intranet.monash.edu.au/copyright/teaching
Suggest a purchase
You are encouraged to recommend material to add to the Library’s collection. Discuss this with your librarian or fill in the suggestion form.

Building collections for new or changing courses and units
New or changed academic initiatives must include a ‘Library Impact Statement’. Discuss this with your contact librarian or learning skills adviser.

Recording lectures for access via the web
Use the online form to request the recording of your lectures.

Borrowing physical material
Staff and students can borrow material from all Monash University libraries and pick up items from their campus of choice. Renewals are usually automatic unless an item has been requested. You can check your loans record online.

You can borrow from other university or TAFE libraries in Victoria with a CAVAL card. You can also borrow from academic libraries outside Victoria through the University Libraries of Australia and New Zealand reciprocal borrowing scheme.
