

CONFIDENTIAL STATEMENT OF SUPPORT – Difficult circumstances

This is for applicants who have applied under the difficult circumstances category, and must be completed by a relevant responsible person. The responsible person should be knowledgeable about your circumstances, and be able to comment and explain in their own words about how the circumstances have impacted on your education.

A responsible person is someone who is not living with, or in a relationship with you.

- Examples of responsible people include:
- Doctor or health care professional
  - Lawyer
  - Certified accountant
  - Social worker, psychologist or registered counsellor
  - Religious or community leader
  - School principal, teacher, or senior member of school

Note: Statements of support cannot be supplied by a person who is related or in a relationship with you. If the only responsible person who has knowledge of your circumstances is a family member or partner, then you must supply a statutory declaration explaining why there is no other person who can supply the statement along with the statement of support. Regardless of the presence of the statutory declaration, statements of support supplied by family members or partners may not be considered for assessment.
