Overall, the MRS O-Week program met my needs as a transition program to assist me in living away from home.

The O-Week program was relevant and varied.

The O-week activities were well organised.

The O-week activities were enjoyable.

The O-week activities were affordable.

There were sufficient opportunities to get to know members of the Residential Support Team.

There were sufficient opportunities to get to know other residents.

There were sufficient opportunities to get to know the university campus.

There were sufficient opportunities to get to know the local area.