GET CAREER READY

The future of work is changing

And you need to keep up. It’s vital you learn how to thrive in a competitive and tech-heavy professional landscape.

Lucky for you, Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences graduates get jobs that are at low risk of automation.

Not only do they power two thirds of Australia’s workforce, they shape the direction of our world. Arts graduates include:

- 65% of chief executives in Australia’s biggest public companies
- 44% of world leaders.

Graduate with an edge

Six months after graduation, over 88% of Arts graduates are in full-time employment or further study.

The employment outcomes and starting salaries of Arts graduates are on par with graduates from Business and Science.

Advantages of doing an internship

- Get valuable work experience that counts towards your degree
- Apply what you’re learning in class to a real-world context
- Gain valuable networking opportunities
- Get an idea of what kind of career you’d like to have
- Do an internship overseas and build your intercultural skills at the same time.

Places where our students have interned

- Australia Africa Chamber of Commerce
- Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC)
- Australian Embassy in Rome
- Consulate General of the Republic of Korea

What I love about the Bachelor of Arts at Monash is that it is so career-focused.

I did a two-month internship at Inclover Magazine, where I got to create news reports for social media and the website, attend virtual press conferences, and write articles for the printed magazine issue.

I also completed an internship with the Australian Centre for Education and Training for four months. I was able to gain insight into corporate social responsibility initiatives and digital operations, as well as develop my project management skills.

WHERE CAN I GO?

Arts study tours

Programs vary from two to six weeks. They’re taught intensively so you can complete one or more units/subjects in that time. They run between semesters, which means you can continue to travel afterwards and potentially finish your degree sooner.

Some examples of what you could do include:

• creating journalism stories while joining the Engineers Without Borders study tour of Cambodia
• undertaking archaeological fieldwork and excavation in Italy
• jamming with jazz masters in New York
• engaging with cultural identities while considering the key challenges they face in Cuba today
• mastering Mandarin in China
• comparing crime and social control in the USA, Asia or Europe
• unravelling the effects of genocide in Europe.

Arts Semester in Prato

Make the Monash Prato Centre your European study base.

Close to Florence in the picturesque landscape of Tuscany, the Monash Prato Centre is located in the beautiful 18th-century Palazzo Vaj right in the centre of Prato.

The program is flexible, immersive and enriching. Divided into three-by-four-week intensive blocks, you can study for the full 12 weeks or take the option of including some travel time and study for four or eight weeks. Embrace the opportunity to learn from some of the world’s most renowned international scholars as you study subjects such as:

• intensive Italian language
• cultural diversity in contemporary Europe
• the Renaissance in Florence.

Intensive language programs

Studying overseas as part of your language major is a great way to immerse yourself in your chosen language and culture.

Monash Arts offers a variety of faculty-led and endorsed language programs available to language students for credit.

Intercampus exchange to Monash Malaysia

Located in Bandar Sunway (18 kilometres from Kuala Lumpur), Monash Malaysia was Monash’s first international campus. Intercampus exchange to Monash Malaysia was available to all Monash Australia students, provided they have room within their course. Generous funding is available for this program.

Exchange to a partner institution

An exchange program involves studying with one of our partner universities around the world. You can go on exchange for one or two semesters. Financial assistance is available and there are no extra tuition fees. You can choose from more than 150 universities in 30 countries.

Study Abroad

If your preferred overseas destination is not a Monash partner university, you can still choose to go there on Study Abroad. You’ll pay the host university’s tuition fees for the time you’re there, and you’re still able to access financial assistance to support your travel.

GLOBAL IMMERSION GUARANTEE

The Monash Global Immersion Guarantee (GIG) is an award-winning initiative that will enable you to explore first-hand the relationships between society, technology and the environment. It’s a two-week, funded study trip available to all first-year Monash Arts, single or double degree students to one of the following destinations: – India, Indonesia, Italy, Malaysia or the Pacific Islands.

The Global Immersion Guarantee is about innovating and putting your degree into practice by responding to some of the world’s biggest challenges. You will engage with people and organisations already working on these issues, and you’ll have the opportunity to gain an understanding of the complexities and challenges involved in implementing sustainable and innovative solutions – all skills your future employers will look for.

Bachelor of ARTS

Workplaces of the future need innovative leaders who can see the bigger picture, with the human-focused and transferable skills you’ll gain in a humanities and social sciences degree.

The Bachelor of Arts is designed to give you maximum flexibility and choice. With over thirty areas of study to choose from, our comprehensive arts degree is flexible, allowing you to design a unique course structure aligned with your interests and career objectives. The course is built around deeply enriching experiences, and offers you four Professional Futures units through which to develop your unique graduate profile. You can choose from local and international internships, professional engagements and entrepreneurial opportunities, and the choice of more than 50 global immersion programs, preparing you to live and work in complex and culturally diverse environments, while building a network of like-minded peers.

The major

Eight units make up your major. These units are from the same area of study4 – for example, sociology, French studies or history. There are many units to choose from but there are also some compulsory units. These are called gateway, cornerstone and capstone units, which have been designed to help you consolidate your learning so you can get the most out of your major.

Gateway: a first-year foundation unit introducing you to the major.
Cornerstone: a second-year unit that focuses on making sure you have a solid grasp of your major.
Capstone: a third-year unit where you demonstrate advanced knowledge of your major. This could be a supervised research project or an internship with an industry partner.

Arts electives/Minor

A minor is four units from the same area of study. In a Bachelor of Arts, you can choose to complete a minor or four individual units from your chosen areas.

Professional Futures

Professional Futures is a distinct, career-oriented program. Customise your own professional journey according to your career interest across four areas, and build the skills and abilities employers value and need.

Global immersion: Broaden your knowledge and life experience by participating in an overseas study program, such as the Global Immersion Guarantee (GIG), or a semester abroad.

Inter-cultural expertise: Learn to recognise your own cultural values and biases, and build skills to thrive in globalised workplaces and communities.

Professional experience: Through industry internships and placements, create networks and skills for your career development.

Innovation capability: Cultivate an innovation mindset as you develop your creative and enterprising abilities.

Free electives

There are eight free elective units which can be taken from Arts, Business, Technology or Science. For example, you could add a second major which gives you two areas of expertise.

Taking advantage of the flexible structure

While there are aspects of the course structure that are fixed (for example, you must complete a major, Arts electives, and Professional Futures units), there’s still plenty of flexibility. This means you can design your course to suit your needs and interests as they evolve. Some examples of what we mean by ‘flexible’ are:

- you can start your major in second-year
- you can complete four Arts electives or a minor
- you can use the eight free electives to make up a second major, two minors, a minor plus electives, or just electives. These can be from Arts, Business, Technology or Science.

Global Immersion Guarantee

As a Bachelor of Arts student, you’ll have access to the Monash Global Immersion Guarantee – an opportunity to spend two weeks studying in India, Indonesia, Italy, Malaysia or the Pacific Islands, with airfares and accommodation covered as part of your degree.

With Monash Arts you can graduate with a bachelor’s and a master’s degree in just four* years. After completing two years of your bachelor’s course, and providing you’re a high-achieving student, you can take master’s-level units as your electives in third-year.

You then complete the rest of your master’s course in fourth-year. You can match your Monash Arts bachelor’s degree with a master’s degree in:

- Applied Linguistics
- Bioethics
- Communications and Media Studies
- Cultural and Creative Industries
- International Development Practice
- International Relations
- International Relations and Journalism
- International Sustainable Tourism Management
- Interpreting and Translation Studies
- Journalism
- Public Policy
- Strategic Communications Management.

The benefits
At Monash Arts we’re committed to providing you with as many opportunities and as much flexibility as possible to allow you to maximise your study options. The Bachelor + Master’s program allows you to:

- Fast track your studies and graduate with an undergraduate and postgraduate degree in just four years – instead of five
- Take advantage of the most extensive Bachelor + Master’s offering in Australia
- Make yourself more employable with two degrees and specialist knowledge
- Save time by completing your Bachelor + Master’s degrees in only four* years.
- Save on fees by continuing to pay Bachelor degree fees when you start your Master’s in 3rd year leaving with with only one year of Master’s fees.

HOW IT WORKS

Step 1
Enter a Monash Arts single bachelor’s degree (Arts, Criminology, Global Studies, Media Communication, Music or Politics, Philosophy and Economics)

Step 2
Follow any major or specialisation sequence and successfully complete two years of study (full-time equivalent)

Step 3
During your final semester of your second year of the bachelor’s degree, as a high achieving student (65% or higher overall average), you are invited to apply to transition into your chosen Arts master’s degree.

Step 4
Once accepted into the program you will commence your master’s units during the third year of your study

Step 5
You will complete one more year of master’s units

DID YOU KNOW
Bachelor + Master's program students have access to both undergraduate and graduate level Arts internships offered by many providers across Australia and globally.

During my studies, I took advantage of the internship opportunities available so I could apply the skills and practical knowledge I gained from the Bachelor + Master’s program in professional work environments. Since graduating, I have secured a job as a Policy Officer at the Australian Primary Health Care Nurses Association, where I completed one of my internships. The networking opportunities and hands-on experience I gained throughout my degree helped me strategically position myself in the workforce, leading to an exciting career straight out of uni."

Bachelor of CRIMINOLOGY

Improve responses to crime and criminality.

Criminology is the study of crime and social control. Crime – how we define it, how we understand its causes and the ways we respond to it – provides a window into society’s challenges, values and aspirations.

This course offers students a world-leading program delivered by a team of outstanding teachers and researchers.

You’ll consider the local, national and global aspects of crime and justice, and become familiar with a range of lenses for understanding and assessing the impact of society’s changing responses to crime and justice. You’ll gain an understanding of victimisation and perpetration, inequality and its impacts, and approaches to understanding crime. Throughout the course you’ll develop your capabilities via the key themes of expert knowledge, global reach and focus, and collaboration and innovation.

You’ll learn about crime committed by individuals, groups, organisations and states, and the mechanisms of the criminal justice system, including police, courts and corrections. Options are available to develop knowledge of specific criminal concerns, such as sexual violence, gendered violence, punishment, criminal justice processes, marginalisation, drugs, cybercrime, risk and surveillance, victimisation and perpetration, youth crime, and crime prevention and transnational justice practices.

Expert knowledge

With its own advisory board, the Bachelor of Criminology brings into play the advice and expert knowledge you’ll gain in class, allowing you to engage in context and gain a genuine understanding of the human realities behind the study of criminology.

Collaboration and innovation

Through multiple opportunities for engagement with industry, you’ll gain the experience needed to be workplace ready. In the professional project unit, you’ll work closely with our industry partners, opening up new pathways and opportunities for your career, and capping off your criminology study by bringing together your knowledge and skills in your final year. The professional project features real-life scenarios, and your work will be assessed by both academics and industry experts.

Further opportunities and internships are available to you through our Work Integrated Learning Internships, both in Australia and around the world. You’ll also have opportunities to travel internationally and meet criminal justice experts from across the world through a selection of exclusive field trips.

Global reach and focus

Throughout the course you’ll be challenged to apply abstract knowledge to real-world problems of crime and justice, and develop solutions. You’ll also have the opportunity to travel internationally and meet criminal justice experts from across the world through a selection of exclusive field trips.

The field trips offer a truly immersive learning experience to complement the academic knowledge you’ll gain in class, allowing you to engage in context and gain a genuine understanding of the human realities behind the study of criminology.

Global Immersion Guarantee

As a Bachelor of Criminology student, you’ll have access to the Monash Global Immersion Guarantee – an opportunity to spend two weeks studying in India, Indonesia, Italy, Malaysia or the Pacific Islands, with airfares and accommodation covered as part of your degree.

Bachelor of CRIMINOLOGY AND POLICING

Crime is a complex phenomena, which requires it to be viewed from various perspectives. In a joint-venture with Victoria Police, the Bachelor of Criminology and Policing is the only course of its kind in Australia.

In this three-year program, you will complete the core requirements of the Monash Bachelor of Criminology, and have the opportunity to apply to undertake a Diploma of Policing, to be completed at the Victoria Police Academy in your third year.

The breadth and depth of our Bachelor of Criminology is a great foundation for anyone considering a career in policing or criminal justice. You will gain an understanding of crime, the broader context in which crime occurs, the drivers of criminal behaviour, and the limits of formal and informal responses to crime.

You will consider the local, national and global aspects of crime and justice, and become familiar with a range of lenses for understanding crime committed by individuals, groups, organisations and states, and the mechanisms of the criminal justice system, including police, courts and corrections.

Options are available to develop knowledge of specific criminal concerns, such as sexual violence, gendered violence, punishment, criminal justice processes, marginalisation, drugs, cybersecurity, risk and surveillance, victimisation and perpetration, youth crime, and crime prevention and transnational justice practices.

Diploma of Policing

The Bachelor of Criminology and Policing is a pathway to your policing career. This course will provide you with the chance to apply to join Victoria Police and, if successful, continue your studies at the Victoria Police Academy, where you will gain practical experience and go on to work in the police force.

From Day 1 of your degree, Victoria Police will organise a police mentor for you, giving you every opportunity to be successful with your Diploma of Policing application in second year. While studying at the Victoria Police Academy in your third year you will also receive mentorship from Monash Criminology staff to support you in completing your Monash units.

Successful students will complete two separate qualifications, the Monash Bachelor of Criminology and the Victoria Police Diploma of Policing, increasing your employability.

OVERSEAS STUDY
Integral to this course is overseas study that can be completed across a full semester or taken intensively. You could take units offered at a Monash international location, join one of our many study tours, or study at one of our prestigious partner universities. It’s compulsory to take at least three overseas study units, but you can take more if you want.

ENGAGING WITH INDUSTRY
With its own advisory board, the Bachelor of Global Studies is in a unique position to draw on the advice and perspectives of industry experts. The board consists of professionals from diverse backgrounds with direct links to business, government and the social sector. They provide vital guidance, advice and feedback to inform our program development and to ensure the course delivers the best outcomes for you.

GLOBAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM
The Global Scholars Program challenges you to engage with your international experience, to step outside and reflect on the people and culture of your chosen destination and to return to Monash as part of a growing networking of past and present Global Scholars. There are 15 x $3000 scholarships available and are exclusive to Bachelor of Global Studies students.

SPECIALISATIONS
You will choose one of the following areas to specialise in and if you like, you can choose another one of these areas to study in your free electives.

CULTURAL COMPETENCE
Extend your studies of leadership, culture and globalisation by focusing on communication across cultural borders. By studying one of eight internationally important languages – Chinese Mandarin, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, French, German, Italian or Spanish – you’ll deepen your cross-cultural skills and knowledge. All languages are available for beginners through to those with proficiency.

Twelve free units: You’ll also study topics such as managing intercultural communication, and the skills you build will enable you to apply your knowledge in real-world contexts.

HUMAN RIGHTS
In the era of globalisation, one of the most important concepts in international affairs is human rights. What are human rights? Are human rights culturally relative? How can human rights be justified? You’ll learn how human rights help to address issues such as global poverty, unequal access to medicine, warfare, terrorism, children’s rights, humanitarian intervention, torture, surveillance and more.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
What are the dynamics of global politics and economics? Gain an understanding of the relationships between political institutions, international organisations, and governmental and non-governmental actors. Grasp evidence-based explanations to study war and conflict, development, financial and other crises at a global level. You’ll undertake in-depth study of topics of contemporary significance such as terrorism and political violence, global governance, international security and foreign policy.

International studies
In order to be competitive in the international marketplace of products, ideas and knowledge, we need to understand how people experience different cultures. International studies develops this understanding by exploring the issues and events that have shaped and continue to shape our world. You’ll examine such diverse topics as the role of cities as drivers of change, migrant and refugee experiences, power and poverty, and tradition and popular culture. In doing so, you’ll develop a solid understanding of European and Asian cultural studies, and of networks of relations between Europe, Asia and Australia.

HAVING FUNDED MY DIPLOMA
Having grown up in different countries, I was inherently curious about how the world works, and that’s what made me choose Monash - it has an international outlook.

My international experience fuelled my interest in having a global career. Monash gave me the practical skills to turn that dream into a reality.

Bachelor of MEDIA COMMUNICATION

A degree for today’s dynamic media world, the Bachelor of Media Communication addresses the growing demand for graduates with new and diverse skills in communication, and a critical understanding of the role of media in all aspects of our lives.

You’ll be part of a new generation of thinkers and future-driven media and communication professionals who’ll challenge convention and devise solutions that will take us into the next century.

Graduate with a portfolio to show employers

From day one, you’ll develop practical experience and work-ready skills to build a portfolio of real work throughout your course. This could be projects such as a documentary, short film or digital marketing campaigns, depending on your interest area. The result is tangible pieces of work you can take out and show to potential employers.

What you’ll study

The course comprises core units, a specialisation and electives. You can tailor it to suit your interests by choosing your specialisation and electives. In your final year, you can do either an internship or a professional project.

Double degrees

The Bachelor of Media Communication can be paired with the:

• Bachelor of Marketing.
• Bachelor of Design
• Bachelor of Business
• Bachelor of Art History and Curating

There are four specialisations to choose from. You will start first year with two specialisations and decide in second year which one to pursue as your primary specialisation.

WILL Internships

If you’re interested in gaining valuable work experience, you can apply for a work integrated learning internship through our extensive network of industry partners within Australia and around the world. The internship runs in the final year of your course. It’ll give you the opportunity to build networks and make contacts for your career development.

Free electives

There are eight free electives in the course. That means you’ll have the flexibility to take units from another discipline within Arts such as politics or a language or from another faculty such as Business, Technology or Science. These electives will complement your specialisation and add diversity to your skill set, making you stand out from your peers.

Core units

Media challenges

This unit addresses the great media challenges of our time. Learn how to critically analyse and think strategically about how to tackle today’s problems, as well as those that lie ahead.

Communicating in the digital era

Become proficient in areas such as video production, broadcasting, news reporting, advertising and social media. Learn to combine critical skills in digital literacy with practical skills in media production to develop your overall digital knowledge.

Media practice labs

With our industry standard, purpose-built Media Lab, you’ll have the opportunity to experience what it’s like to work in a professional media environment right on campus. Experiment with different kinds of technology – from working in live and post-production TV studios, or the latest radio broadcast facilities.

Professional placement

In your final year you’ll have the opportunity to bring together your in-depth knowledge and skills with either an internship or professional project.

Specialisations

There are four specialisations to choose from. You will start first year with two specialisations and decide in second year which one to pursue as your primary specialisation.

Journalism

Make the news and make stories that matter. Spanning digital, audio, video and print media, this specialisation makes use of the Monash Media Lab to give you the practical and creative skills required to excel in a rewarding journalism career.

Media

You’ll become a true media expert in today’s fast-evolving world, building skills and knowledge in media research, management, communication and policy. You’ll develop skills in media analysis that have applications across a wide range of professional contexts – from social media strategy in organisations to media management and communication, and media policy.

Public relations

You’ll learn how to research, develop, apply and evaluate communication strategies. You’ll develop global perspectives, understand the importance of the management of stakeholder relationships and reputation, acquire skills in public opinion analysis, learn to identify and manage organisational issues, and develop a crisis management plan.

This specialisation also provides you with the skills required to research, plan and implement a strategic public relations campaign.

You’ll have the opportunity to work with real clients where you’ll gain insights into ethical communication practice as well as the skills needed for a professional career in public relations.

Bachelor of MUSIC

The Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music and Performance has one of the most comprehensive music programs in the country. We excel in classical, jazz and popular music performance, and have vibrant programs in composition, improvisation and creative music technology.

This course is focused on your music journey and on your career development. You’ll have weekly one-to-one lessons, collaborate with students in other specialisations, learn from accomplished music staff and engage with international artists.

The course comprises 24 units. These units work through three themes and electives.

Electives

There are eight free electives that you can take from Music, Arts, Business, Technology or Science. For example, you could complement your studies with a language or marketing unit from the Business School.

Double degrees

The Bachelor of Music can be paired with the:
- Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Commerce
- Bachelor of Education (Honours), (includes Victorian Institute of Teaching registration)
- Bachelor of Laws (Honours)
- Bachelor of Science.

Other ways to study music

In your course you can include non-practical music units in your Bachelor of Arts course as a major, a minor or use your free electives. If you’re studying another Monash course, you can use your elective units to take non-practical music units.

Performance opportunities

Monash is renowned for its performance and we have a diverse range of small and large ensembles, including piano ensembles, choral groups (gospel, contemporary and classical), electronic laptop, new music, string orchestra, wind orchestra, funk, pop, Latin jazz, Gamelan, small jazz ensembles (including Australian Jazz and Brazilian) as well as the Monash Art Ensemble and the Monash Orchestra Academy.

Specialisations

Music performance - Classical performance or Jazz and Improvisation

Available to those with strong musical aptitude in classical or jazz performance, this specialisation offers you the rigour and richness required to put you on the path to professional music performance success. You’ll acquire an assured instrumental or vocal technique and perform in a variety of ensembles, in addition to solo work. You will have the opportunity to take part in one of our study tours to New York or to the Monash Prato Centre in Italy.

Popular music

Designed for popular music performers and creators of the future. In addition to developing practical performance skills and stagecraft, you’ll learn how to engage with a broad range of tools, production styles and contexts representative of the popular music industry. You’ll start by developing techniques and best practices on your principal instrument or voice across a range of musical styles and repertoire. These skills will be applied in both solo and ensemble performance contexts in songwriting, live and recording environments. You’ll have the opportunity to conceptualise and create a live performance and recording project under the guidance of expert teachers within your chosen musical style and/or context.

Composition and music technology

In this specialisation you’ll develop skills in composition and music technology for acoustic and electronic instruments, songwriting and music for other media such as film and video games. You’ll have the opportunity to collaborate with students, visit for visiting international artists and make your own recording projects. Through our partnership with the Melbourne Electronic Sound Studio (MESS), you’ll have access to vintage electronic equipment. Our ongoing program of local, national and international visiting artists and workshops means you’ll create established contacts with industry and be prepared for global career opportunities.

Specialisations

Politics and governance

The study of politics addresses important questions about the nature of power, authority and governance: who gets what, when and how. Politics also encompasses the study of notions of freedom and agency in situations of social choice.

Philosophy

Philosophy is the study of fundamental ideas about the world we live in. It questions the nature of our world, asks what constitutes a good life in such a world, and asks what could be done to make it better. In this specialisation you’ll be introduced to areas central to philosophy, including political philosophy, ethics and logic.

Economic analysis

Economic analysis provides an advanced understanding of the theories explaining and analysing the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services, with a focus on how individuals, households, firms and governments interact and how economies work.

ANTHROPOLOGY

Available as a major, minor or electives

Clayton

About anthropology

Anthropology compares different ways of life. Anthropologists provide ‘insider’ perspective on human behaviour by observing the lives of others, living with them, sharing their experiences and discussing their perspectives.

Why study anthropology?

Anthropologists specialise in analysing, documenting and creating social changes, and can assist in areas such as climate change, mining, social policy, Indigenous issues and development aid.

Anthropology and travel

Anthropologists travel extensively as part of their work. Monash anthropologists have travelled to outback Australia, Indonesia, Iran, Timor-Leste and many other locations.

Career options

- Health and education
- Social research
- Indigenous affairs
- Conservation and heritage work
- Multicultural affairs
- Curating and collecting work
- Documentary production
- Tourism
- Museum/gallery curating

ARCHAEOLOGY AND ANCIENT HISTORY

Available as a major, minor or electives

Clayton

About archaeology and ancient history

Archaeology and ancient history focuses on the ancient Mediterranean world and Indigenous Australian studies. You’ll examine historical texts, literature and material records – such as ancient sites, monuments, art and objects – to understand how people lived, how their culture developed and what their beliefs were.

Why study archaeology and ancient history?

You’ll learn about the first Australians and how their past contributes to our nation’s enduring heritage. You’ll investigate how the Mediterranean served as the birthplace of many influential ancient cultures, and you’ll become familiar with how these cultures have contributed to the intellectual development of the western world.

LINGUISTICS AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE
Available as a major, minor or electives
Clayton
About linguistics and English language
Language is central to human life, and linguistics is the scientific study of language and its application. It explores the way we understand, acquire and use language, both spoken and written. And while it considers the diverse characteristics of individual languages, it also uncovers the deeper properties that all languages share. You’ll explore multilingualism and multilingual societies, including areas such as language and globalization, language learning and teaching and language endangerment. You’ll also have the option to specialise in English as an international language.

Why study linguistics and English language?
Studying linguistics and English language will enable you to analyse the role of social interaction and the relationship between language, society, identity and culture. You’ll be able to communicate more effectively across cultures, and explore the ways in which language enables human thought and feeling to be revealed in sounds or written shapes, and the ways speakers and listeners navigate this process.

UNDERSTANDING THE TERMINOLOGY

Comprehensive degree
At Monash Arts, this refers to the Bachelor of Arts. A comprehensive degree gives you the choice and flexibility to select your units (subject) and requires you to complete 24 units in 3 years, including specific requirements such as completing an Arts major and Professional Futures units.

Specialist degree
At Monash Arts, this refers to the Bachelor of Criminology, Bachelor of Criminology and Policing, Bachelor of Global Studies, Bachelor of Media Communication, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Politics, Philosophy and Economics. You need to complete 24 units in 3 years and meet the core requirements of the degree, for example, completing one of the nominated specialisations, studying the prescribed minor, studying overseas, or undertaking a professional project.

Units
Sometimes called a subject, units are usually worth six credit points. You need to complete 144 credit points in a three-year degree. Some second-year and third-year units are worth 12 credit points, and are counted as two units – these units have a higher workload.

Areas of study
An ‘area of study’ is a field of knowledge – for example, literary studies or sociology. Areas of study are sometimes called ‘disciplines’.

Major
A major is eight units from the same area of study. In the Bachelor of Arts you can choose to study one or two majors, and you don’t have to decide on your major straight away.

Arts electives/Minor
A minor is four units from the same area of study. In a Bachelor of Arts, you can choose to complete a minor or four individual units from your chosen areas. In most specialist degrees, your minor is prescribed.

Specialisation
An Arts specialisation consists of 10–12 units and is a requirement of any of the specialist degrees.

Elective
There are eight free elective units in all single Arts degrees. These can be taken from Arts, Business, Technology or Science.

Bachelor degree
A Bachelor degree is also referred to as an undergraduate degree and is generally your first degree out of high school.

Master degree
A master degree is also referred to as postgraduate degree and is a higher qualification to a Bachelor degree, usually taken after a Bachelor degree.

If there’s one thing to look out for, it’s a place with good internships, and genuinely Monash was great at supplying those. I did five internships all up and two of those internships led to a job.”
