

Late Re-enrolment application form

General information

If you have not re-enrolled by the end of the late re-enrolment period and have lost your place in your course you must apply for permission to re-enrol from your course managing faculty by completing this form.

Late fee

A late fee of AUD$325 will automatically be applied to your student fee account, if your application for late re-enrolment is approved. The late fee will be included on your fee invoice for the first teaching period you have enrolled in and must be paid by the due date.

Supporting documentation

You must provide supporting documentation outlining the exceptional circumstances that prevented you from re-enrolling on time.

Approval

A decision on your application will be made at the discretion of your course managing faculty. Your course managing faculty will advise you if your application has been approved by sending an email to your Monash student email account.

Re-enrolment

If your application is approved you will be required to re-enrol via WES upon approval of this application.

Closing dates

Closing dates for applications for late re-enrolment are determined by the faculty. Students are advised to contact the course managing faculty of their home campus prior to lodging their application. For contact details, please see monash.edu.au/faculties/
