

Health Law & Society Group

Claiming, Care and Injury Compensation: Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Date: Monday 23 November 2015
Venue: Monash University Law Chambers

- 8.30am – 9.00am Arrival – Tea/Coffee
- 9.00am – 9.15am Welcome & Opening Remarks
Dr Genevieve Grant (Monash University)
- 9.15am - 10.45am Panel Session 1: Claimant Experiences
Chair: Dr Genevieve Grant
- ‘Scrutiny, scepticism, surveillance: the impact of insurer surveillance on workers’ experiences of injury compensation claims’
Dr Tarryn Phillips (Latrobe University)
- ‘Experiences of compensation adequacy under fault-based versus no-fault motor accident insurance’
Dr Ros Harrington (Griffith University)
- ‘Medical negligence claiming: preliminary findings from a pilot study’
A/Prof Anne-Maree Farrell (Monash University)
- 10.45am – 11am Morning Tea/Coffee
- 11am – 12.30pm Panel Session 2: Considering Outcomes
Chair: Prof Prue Vines
- ‘Use of injury compensation claims data for injury outcomes research: five years’ experience using the Compensation Research Database at ISCR’
Dr Janneke Berecki-Gisolf (Monash University)
- ‘Sickness absence research in Sweden: risk factors and consequences’
Dr Emilie Friberg (Karolinska Institute, Sweden)
- ‘When lump sums run out: disputes at the borders of injury law’
Dr Genevieve Grant (Monash University)

12.30pm – 1pm

Lunch

1pm – 2.30pm

Panel Session 3: Developments in Law's Response to Injury

Chair: Dr Jason Taliadoros

'Personal injury compensation and the march of neo-liberalism'
Annette Morris (Cardiff University)

'Propensity to sue with apologies in the mix: law, psychology and comparative law'
Prof Prue Vines (UNSW)

'The UK innovative treatment law reform debate'
A/Prof Tina Cockburn (QUT)

2.30pm – 2.45pm

Afternoon Tea/Coffee

2.45pm – 4.15pm

Panel Session 4: Controversies in Coverage and Assessment

Chair: Dr Tarryn Phillips

'The decision of Comcare v PVYW and its coherence at law'
Dr Jason Taliadoros (Deakin University)

'Quantifying noneconomic losses after injury: a health utility-based approach'
Dr Natalie Carvalho (The University of Melbourne)

'Procedural justice and the use of independent medical evaluations in workers' compensation'
Dr Beth Kilgour (Monash University)

4.15 – 4.30pm

General Discussion and Closing Remarks

Chair: A/Prof Anne-Maree Farrell (Monash University)