

GCE A LEVELS

REQUIRED ENTRY SCORE

A score of 9.5* for entry into the Bachelor of Science.
A higher score may be required for other science degrees.

REQUIRED SUBJECTS

You must satisfy the following prerequisite subject requirements for this course, at the required level:

- 1 A Level English (E grade)
- 1 A Level science or mathematics subject (E grade)

Please contact us for more information.

HOW TO CALCULATE YOUR ENTRY SCORE

Total score by achieving one of the following:

- 3 A Level subjects, OR
- Only applicable to students who have completed 3 A Level subjects:
 - 2 A Level subjects plus 2 AS Level subjects, OR
- Only applicable to students who have not completed 3 A level subjects:
 - 2 A Level subjects, OR
 - 2 A Level subjects plus 2 AS Level subjects, OR
 - 2 A Level subjects plus 1 AS Level subject.

Other subject combinations cannot be used to determine whether the Monash course academic entry score has been satisfied.

ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES

- AS Level subjects included in the calculation cannot be in the same subject area as any A Level subjects included in the calculation.
- A Level or AS Level subjects completed in the same subject area, including those completed more than once and awarded by various awarding bodies (Monash-accepted awarding bodies listed below), will be included only once in the calculation, with the highest achieved result considered. For example, if GCE English Language has been completed twice and awarded by Cambridge International and Pearson Edexcel, only the subject with the highest achieved result will be included in the calculation.

Score grades as follows:

- A Level subjects: A*(a*) = 5, A(a) = 5, B(b) = 4, C(c) = 3, D(d) = 2, E(e) = 1, U = 0.
- AS Level subjects: a(a) = 2.5, b(b) = 2, c(c) = 1.5, d(d) = 1, e(e) = 0.5, U = 0.

A maximum of 1 bonus point is offered when achieving A* in an A Level Subject.

The following can be included in the calculation:

- Subjects awarded with a + symbol
- Level 3 Extended Project Qualification (EPQ) or Cambridge International Project Qualification (CIPQ) can be considered as an A Level subject in the calculation. Score grades as follows: A*(a*) = 5, A(a) = 5, B(b) = 4, C(c) = 3, D(d) = 2, E(e) = 1, U = 0.
- Cambridge Pre-U subjects can be considered as an A Level subject in the calculation. Score grades as follows: D1 = 5, D2 = 5, D3 = 5, M1 = 4, M2 = 4, M3 = 3, P1 = 3, P2 = 2, P3 = 1.

The following cannot be included in the calculation and cannot be used to meet the Monash course prerequisite requirements:

- Subjects awarded with a # symbol
- Subjects graded with N (Narrow failure) or U (Unclassified)
