Respect, Now, Always Advisory Committee

TERMS OF REFERENCE

The Respect, Now, Always Advisory Committee is responsible for guiding the implementation of the recommendations outlined in the Australian Human Rights Commission’s Change the Course: National Report on Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment at Australian Universities.

The Respect, Now, Always Advisory Committee is chaired by the President and Vice-Chancellor and co-chaired by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor and Vice-President (Education).

The Respect, Now, Always Advisory Committee shall:

1. Provide advice to the President and Vice-Chancellor on the implementation of the recommendations outlined in the Change the Course: National Report on Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment at Australian Universities and in fulfilment of the Universities Australia 10 Point Action Plan.

2. Develop, monitor and evaluate the action plan of strategies implemented by Monash University towards the elimination and prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment at University settings.

3. Consult with broader stakeholders from the Monash University community, and where relevant, seek independent expertise to inform the development of strategies and initiatives aimed at eliminating and preventing sexual assault and sexual harassment at University settings.

4. Work closely with the University’s affiliated college and offshore campuses to ensure these environments are aligned to the University’s approach and commitment to the elimination and prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment.

5. Publicly report on the University’s progress towards implementation of the recommendations outlined in the Change the Course: National Report on Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment at Australian Universities and in fulfilment of the Universities Australia 10 Point Action Plan.

6. Conduct themselves with integrity, respect, and in line with the values and ethos of Monash University.

7. Participate in regular meetings, and in the completion of actions arising where required.

The Respect, Now, Always Advisory Committee is supported by an Executive Officer who is responsible for the coordination of meetings, membership and supporting the Chair and Co-Chair in the activities undertaken by the Committee.
