HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO INSPIRE THE NEXT GENERATION?

Look back at your career. How did you get here? Did others inspire you with their achievements? Did they guide you toward a path you hadn’t considered before? Monash Alumni Engagement Opportunities are your chance to make a difference, not just for yourself but also for a new generation of professionals.

We invite you to share your knowledge, expand your network and help Monash students achieve their full potential.

“We need to see the world from many viewpoints and provide a road map to those who want to follow in our footsteps. I can help to point out potential pitfalls and show students how I overcame obstacles to get where I am today.”

MONASH ALUMNI ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
Champion a current Monash student in their mentoring and leadership development and help guide their career beyond graduation.

“I’m really pleased to be involved with this program. It’s a great opportunity for me to develop my leadership skills and support upcoming and talented students who broaden my understanding of contemporary perspectives within my field.”

There are currently 360 Monash students signed up to be mentors as part of the Access Monash Mentoring Program. The Program is making significant and measurable improvements to the higher education and life outcomes for students from low socio-economic (low SES) communities.

30 high performing Monash students seeking a leadership role are selected by Access Monash to become Mentor Leaders. Mentor Leaders receive additional training in mentoring and a Community Leaders Scholarship of $4000 per year for the time they give to the program.

Through the Dr Betty Amsden AO Monash Alumni Mentoring Program, alumni are matched on a one-to-one basis with Monash student Mentor Leaders.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO MENTOR
Located in Melbourne, the program runs from March to October. Alumni attend official events, keep in regular contact and have a minimum of four face-to-face meetings with their Mentor Leader. Alumni mentors also invite their Mentor Leader to at least one external professional networking event.

Mentoring program by numbers:
- 600 Victorian secondary school students have been a part of the program to date
- 45 partner schools located in low SES communities have participated to date
- 360 Monash student mentors are currently participating in the program
- One Monash student mentor supports two secondary school students, matched by subject choice
- 30 Monash student mentors have been selected to become Mentor Leaders

Mentor a student recipient of the Monash Scholarship for Outstanding Achievement and nurture these talented students to achieve their greatest potential.

“My involvement in the program has been truly rewarding. Meeting a diverse group of students each year, hearing about their background and experiences, bringing out the strategic and creative thinker in them, and ending the program with a sense of personal accomplishment and enrichment, has certainly been the standout memories of the whole experience for me. You can’t help but feel humbled that you are able to assist in making a positive and lasting difference in a student’s life.”

The Scholarship is part of the Sir John Monash Scholarship Program, a premier suite of scholarships designed to recognise achievement regardless of financial or personal situations.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO MENTOR

The Sir John Monash Scholarship for Outstanding Achievement is awarded to students who achieved an Australian Tertiary Admissions Rank (ATAR) of 99.90 or above. Monash students who receive this scholarship are exclusively invited to participate in the Sir John Monash Mentoring Program from their second year of study onwards.

You can help these gifted students transform their education into a career in this multidisciplinary program. You’ll provide your mentee with guidance in developing their leadership skills, career planning, and facilitate introductions to your professional networks.

Once matched with your mentee, you will be introduced and receive resources to launch your mentoring journey as well as ongoing support throughout the program.

The program runs from April to November and includes three evening events, meeting with your mentee monthly, and regular contact online or by phone.

This professional and career-focused mentoring program gives you the opportunity to guide, support and assist students through the transition from study to work. Delivered by the Monash Business School, the program runs from May to October and connects students to a variety of professionals at different stages in their careers in a range of pathways.

The program is open to students with a credit average or above who demonstrate an interest in developing professional skills and academic pursuits. The program matches selected students with Monash alumni, or industry mentors.

Mentors have the opportunity to guide students in developing competencies that contribute to their employability and provide them with a sense of direction as they prepare for life after university.

Once matched with your mentee, you’ll attend an introductory meeting (or webinar) to launch your mentoring relationship. Mentors and mentees connect over a six month period on at least four occasions and have regular communication in-between.

Most mentors find the experience so personally rewarding that they continue to participate in the program for subsequent years.

MONASH ALUMNI ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
If you are the founder of a startup or have relevant expertise, you have the opportunity to help develop the next generation of startups growing out of Monash.

“The GENERATOR is an incredible way to expose students early on in their lives to the infinitely possible ways their professional lives could pan out – jobs aren’t delineated as clearly as they once were and the possibilities are endless. And for me, going back to a student environment is linking me back into fresh, young minds and reminding me of new and innovative ways to think and create.”

Pursuing the entrepreneurial career path is a beckoning career for graduates, but the journey is marked with unique challenges. Many Monash alumni have launched successful ventures and can look back on the support they received along the way to overcome these hurdles.

The GENERATOR was established in 2016 as a central access point to inspire and support entrepreneurial talent at Monash.

This Monash incubation and co-working space located at the Clayton campus is geared towards supporting fledgling startups, and aims to build a strong entrepreneurial community at Monash.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO INFLUENCE
Monash alumni have an important role to play in the support and creation of early stage startups. Experienced alumni entrepreneurs and business experts can give their time and experience to build the next generation of high impact startups.

Alumni who are embarking on their own entrepreneurial journey can apply for programs and funding to support their startup ventures.

ACCELERATE YOUR STARTUP
Apply for a three-month intensive program to accelerate your startup. The program provides successful applicants up to $20,000 funding per year, a dedicated co-working space and tailored mentoring.

INSPIRE
Share the learnings of your entrepreneurial journey at one of our startup events and inspire entrepreneurial potential at Monash.

LEAD
Build entrepreneurial skills through workshops on areas of your knowledge and expertise.

MENTOR
Provide mentorship to accelerate early stage startups to the next level, and connect them to your networks and opportunities in the broader industry.

WILL YOU INFLUENCE THE NEXT GENERATION OF STARTUPS?

Mentor and inspire a new generation of students in the Bachelor of Science Advanced – Global Challenges (Honours) degree and equip them with a broad set of skills and experiences to push the boundaries of what is possible.

“I would definitely encourage alumni to become a mentor. It’s more than fun. It’s interesting and stimulating to meet and work with young people. I give them guidance yet I’m learning to adapt to their situation and knowledge.”

This undergraduate course is for high-achieving science students who have the drive and passion to use science to influence business, government, the not-for-profit sector, and the wider community.

The first of its kind in Australia, this degree pushes the boundaries of science to solve the world’s biggest challenges using more than just brilliant scientific minds; we need leaders, deep thinkers, adventurers, inspirers, innovators, entrepreneurs and game changers.

In addition to studying a scientific discipline at Monash, Global Challenges students receive high-level training in leadership, persuasive communication, entrepreneurship, policy, ethics, and corporate social responsibility. Students also have access to inspiring high profile guest speakers, two internship programs and at least one international placement.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO INFLUENCE
With your support, Monash global graduates will be equipped to look at the world in a way that only an entrepreneurial scientist can – to look for solutions to some of the biggest challenges of our time.

Alumni involved in this multidisciplinary program can be from any background, not strictly science-based, and the level of involvement is up to you. Consider the opportunities below.

INSPIRE
Share your experiences at events and lectures as a guest speaker.

LEAD
Work with small teams of students on their year-long major project to tackle a problem of real world significance or help students develop innovative solutions to approach an issue from scientific, policy, social and business perspectives.

MENTOR
Offer mentoring to students starting their own businesses.

CONNECT
Provide internships and other opportunities at your company to the best and brightest Monash science students.

MONASH ALUMNI ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
Facilitate an immersive international study tour giving students exclusive access to your influential global networks.

“We can expose students to real life business scenarios in the workforce via people actually living it.”

Supported and hosted by the local Global Leaders’ Group in one of our eight priority locations, a select group of up to eight students are chosen through a competitive process to participate in this intensive eight-day program. The hosting Global Leaders’ Group, together with their wider alumni network, create a bespoke program for students that includes workplace meetings, experiences and introductions to leading alumni and their organisations.

To be considered, students must develop a 30 second video. Monash manages the application and selection process as well as the administration for the program.

The Global Discovery Program is a life changing opportunity for Monash students selected to participate. The Global Leaders’ involved in the program have the opportunity to interact with some of the best and brightest Monash minds.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO GIVE

The program is alumni funded through philanthropy and corporate sponsorship. Monash provides each student with travel insurance and a stipend through the Travel Abroad Scholarship.

Each Global Discovery Program gives you the opportunity to:

- Develop an inspiring itinerary that includes meetings with supporting alumni
- Interact with the next generation of leaders
- Access some of the best and brightest minds Monash has to offer
- Extend personal and business networks with alumni in the hosting location

Monash can tailor a sponsorship package to suit you and your organisation and will provide exposure through:

- Social media throughout the program
- The Global Discovery Program website
- Print materials used to promote the program
- Video promotion both pre and post program

Each year, thousands of Monash students engage in extracurricular leadership and professional development events and opportunities. They have one aim – to prepare themselves for the workforce and life after university. Listening to alumni speakers who have demonstrated success in their chosen career helps develop the leadership skills, confidence and employability that students need in order to succeed in their careers. You can express an interest in speaking opportunities and be placed on our Speaker Registry for future events.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO INSPIRE

AT THE LECTERN
You can be a panellist, keynote or guest speaker at Monash events and inspire students and alumni alike with your story and expertise. Some events include:
- Graduation ceremonies
- Professional development events
- The Alumni Speaker Series
- Careers and industry panels
- Student leadership events
- Mentoring program events

Audiences can range from 10 to over 500 depending on the activity or event. The time commitment varies from one to three hours as well as additional time preparing your address.

ON FILM
We often produce video content for student career training purposes. You may be interviewed about your career, the employability skills you have developed and how these contribute to your career success.

IN CLASS
Engage directly with highly capable students to share knowledge in your area of expertise.

MONASH ALUMNI ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
The help a mentor can give a student might seem small at the time, but means much more to them. It’s amazing to look retrospectively at where they started in their professional development and realise how quickly they develop and learn. A bit of time out of your day will mean a world of difference to a student.”

Some Monash students complete a work placement as part of their course. You can partner with Monash and host talented students for work integrated learning projects in the workplace. Monash University provides insurance for the student and can help you design the internship project or placement. For international placements Monash provides the student with visa assistance. To participate, you’re required to have public indemnity insurance, a supervisor for the intern and a safe place to work. Internships range in duration, but typically take place between 20-60 working days.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO GROW

Hosting a student in your workplace or involving them in an off-site project can provide your organisation with:

- New project development ideas and perspectives
- Savings on recruitment costs
- Staff development opportunities for employees to mentor students
- Networking opportunities with Monash faculties
- Access to skills

Monash supports internships in Australia and around the world. Monash will carefully match an intern to your requirements and you can interview and select the right intern for your organisation. We have placed Monash University interns successfully in a wide range of industries including:

- Advertising and Media
- Accounting, Banking and Financial Services
- Operations
- General Management Consulting
- Human Resources
- Information Technology
- Journalism
- Manufacturing
- Marketing, Public Relations and Communications
- Property Management
- Supply Chain and Logistics
- Sustainability
- Technology and Innovation
- Tourism

MONASH ALUMNI ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
The Monash Industry Team Initiative (MITI) offers a unique opportunity to explore creative and innovative solutions to business challenges through partnerships with industry and multi-disciplinary student teams from Monash University.

“\nThe MITI project is a great experience for both Monash students and business leaders on my team. The students flourish through involvement with important cross-discipline challenges while gaining real-life business experience.\n”

Industry partners host teams of up to four students to undertake a specific project over 12 weeks from December to February.

The industry partner, together with the University define the requirements for the project and the team required, ensuring that students are exposed to relevant learning opportunities throughout the duration of the experience.

Students are competitively selected from a range of fields to form a multidisciplinary team. Monash pre-screens students according to defined criteria and the industry partner selects the final project team.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO CONNECT
As an industry partner, you will:
- Benefit from an energetic multi-disciplinary team working in your business committed to delivering on time and on budget
- Achieve creative and immediate solutions to your business needs
- Access diverse ideas through the interaction of disciplines among the students
- Get access to dynamic new talent

Monash Career Connect can assist with your recruitment needs by promoting your vacancies, connecting you with Monash students and graduates, and helping you build your brand on campus. We can also put you in contact with faculty and departmental staff as well as student clubs and societies, or help you with sponsorship opportunities.

Students and recent graduates are seeking:
- Graduate programs
- Entry level roles
- Part time and casual work
- Volunteering opportunities

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO CONNECT
With a targeted approach there are a number of ways alumni can become employers through Career Connect.

CONNECT
As a Monash industry partner, you can advertise a job vacancy at careergateway.monash.edu/employers. We also encourage getting involved with on-campus activities such as industry events, careers fairs, information sessions, mock interview sessions and employability seminars.

GROW
If you are a not-for-profit organisation, register and connect with the Monash student volunteer network to list your available opportunities through volunteering at Monash. Monash students make some of the best volunteers.
