Now in its third year, the Celebrating Excellence Awards acknowledges the fantastic efforts of all our staff and students that help us work towards our goal of creating a world-leading Business School.

This year, we have a lot to celebrate. With 720 staff, more than 17,000 students and 110,000 alumni scattered across the world, we can rightly claim to be Australia’s largest Business School. But Monash Business School is much more than that.

Everyone attending our awards would be aware that Monash Business School is one of the few business schools in the world to be able to claim the privilege of triple accreditation by three global accrediting bodies: AACSB (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business); AMBA (Association of MBAs) and EQUIS (EFMD Quality Improvement System).

This means we have been measured against the standards of the world’s best schools.

We differ from many other business schools in that we are proudly a research-intensive business school; we believe we can have discernible impacts on today’s business problems and tackle looming issues.

So, we were delighted when the country’s foremost research funding institution, the Australian Research Council (ARC) allocated $1.4 million in grants to Monash Business School in the areas of economics and commerce, management, and tourism and services.

In 2017, our reputation as Australia’s strongest business research and teaching school was acknowledged with strong results in the highly prestigious QS 2018 World University Rankings by Subject, one of the premier barometers of excellence in academic education.

How we continue to build on these excellent efforts is reflected in our annual Dean’s Awards, which specifically recognises the world-class work of our teachers and researchers. We’re delighted to present the winners at the Celebrating Excellence Awards 2018.

We also acknowledge our talented alumni with the Monash Business School Alumni Excellence Award, and celebrate our top students with our Future Global Leaders awards.

Finally, I’d like to pay tribute to former Head of Monash Business School, Professor Colm Kearney, who retired in November 2017 after a tireless five years of shaping Monash Business School into the entity it is today. We were all saddened by the news of his passing on March 28, 2018.

Professor Kearney’s vision was to shape Monash Business School into a globally recognised Business School, known for its excellence in teaching and research. We are well on the path to this. It’s my great pleasure to congratulate all the Dean’s Award winners and acknowledge the great achievements of the year.

Professor Rob Brooks
Interim Head, Monash Business School, Interim Dean, Faculty of Business and Economics
We are delighted to welcome Cindy Gottinger as our keynote speaker at the Monash Business School Celebrating Excellence Awards 2018.

Cindy graduated in 2008 with a Bachelor of Commerce and Bachelor of Arts double degree majoring in economics, Chinese and German. Cindy has achieved considerable success in her career to date and is also an outstanding ambassador for Monash Business School, as well as Australia China relations.

Cindy is the client lead at Google responsible for increasing marketing efficiency and effectiveness of large multinational corporations in China. Recognised by the technology industry as a young leader in her field, Cindy possesses an appetite to explore new markets and gain deeper insights into the evolving trends of Chinese consumers.

Before joining Google, Cindy was a brand manager at Volkswagen Group China where she was responsible for building the Skoda brand for Chinese consumers. Before moving to Beijing, Cindy was an international business development manager at China Radio International, where she managed the expansion of Chinese media properties both domestically and abroad. Cindy has also worked in the Private Wealth Management division at Goldman Sachs.JB were.

Cindy has been an active participant in the Australia China community for the past 15 years. She is currently the Executive Director of the Australia China Young Professional Initiative (ACYPI) in Greater China where she successfully established a platform for young professionals to engage in bilateral discussions and exchange. In 2017, she was selected as a finalist for her category (ICT and New Media) in the prestigious Australia China Alumni Awards.

As an experienced presenter fluent in Mandarin, Cantonese and German, Cindy is frequently invited to host and moderate a variety of business and community events both in Australia and China.
Monash Business School engages in the highest quality research and education to have a positive impact on a changing world. Our alumni represent some of the foremost thinkers and brightest achievers across many diverse business disciplines.

The Monash Business School Alumni Excellence Award celebrates graduates who are making a positive impact on the world through outstanding professional contributions. This award particularly celebrates alumni who have achieved excellence in their profession or work life, who have demonstrated leadership/innovation in their particular field, who are a source of inspiration to students and pride to the Business School community and beyond; and who value and reflect the importance of their Monash education.

In 2018, we are delighted to award the Monash Business School Alumni Excellence Award to Jonathan Byrt, for his leadership and innovation through the development of the internationally successful memobottle™ – a company he co-founded in 2014 with close friend, Jesse Leeworthy.

Understanding the global impact of plastic water bottles polluting waterways and natural environments, Jonathan and Jesse set out to create an alternative to single use water bottles that was truly convenient, beautiful and sustainable – and so memobottle™ was born. They created a premium, re-usable, flat water bottle, expertly designed to neatly slide into carry bags alongside computers, books and valuables. Every element of the design was carefully considered, from its innovative shape to the recycled cardboard packaging.

Today memobottle™ is a certified B Corporation – an emerging group of companies that are using the power of business to make a positive impact on the world and generate a shared and durable prosperity for all. Memobottle™ products are stocked by thousands of retailers globally, ship to over 70 countries and have won a number of international design awards. In addition, their partnership with water.org has helped to provide clean drinking water to hundreds of thousands of people in need.

Prior to founding memobottle™, Jonathan spent six years as a Financial Consultant at PricewaterhouseCoopers (USA), The Siegfried Group (USA) and Deloitte (AUS), performing Accounting, Financial and Consulting services for a vast range of clients from small start-ups to Fortune 500 and ASX listed companies. He is also a Chartered Accountant with the Institute of Chartered Accountants (ICAA).

Jonathan’s inspiration and passion for developing sustainable business practices and community engagement was strongly fostered during the Bachelor of Commerce degree he completed in 2009. Mid-studies, Jonathan spent six months living in remote Indigenous communities at the top end of Australia. There he worked with the Australian Football League (AFL) as a Regional Development Assistant promoting healthy and sustainable lifestyles within disadvantaged communities, motivating Indigenous youth and organising community based funding and activities.

We congratulate Jonathan for his vision, drive and determination to create a sustainable business that is delivering positive change on a global scale.
The Monash Business School Future Global Leaders Award recognises students who are committed to the development of sustainable businesses and practices that contribute to the economic, environmental and social development of communities, and who demonstrate the drive and ambition to become global leaders of the future.

The Mollie Holman Medal was established in 1998 and is named after the late pioneering physiologist, Emeritus Professor Mollie Holman AO, in honour of her significant contributions to science and education.

A pioneer in her field, Professor Holman’s memory is preserved in these medals struck in her honour. They are among the highest academic honours we bestow, and mark the recipients as researchers of the highest order.

Each year, a maximum of ten medals are awarded to doctoral students, normally one from each faculty, who have fulfilled their degree requirements and presented their faculty’s best thesis of the year.

The Vice-Chancellor’s commendations for thesis excellence are also awarded annually to outstanding Doctoral and Research Master’s thesis excellence. A maximum of five Commendations are awarded each year.

The Donald Cochrane Postgraduate Research Scholarship is a prestigious award supporting outstanding PhD candidates in the Monash Business School. The scholarship recipients receive financial support of $10,000 per annum for three years.

This scholarship has been made possible through the generous philanthropic support of Dr Fiona Cochrane and Dr Andrew Cochrane AM, in honour of their late father, Emeritus Professor Donald Cochrane CBE, who was the founding Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Politics (now Business and Economics) at Monash University. Under his guidance, the Faculty of Economics and Politics grew to be recognised as a leading centre of quality teaching and ground-breaking research.

In addition to Fiona and Andrew’s generosity, almost $469,649 has been donated from 133 individual and organisation donors since 2007. Thanks to their support, Monash Business School has been able to fund an additional Donald Cochrane Postgraduate Research Scholarship annually.

The scholarship has supported 32 PhD students to date, including the 2018 Donald Cochrane Postgraduate Research Scholarship Recipients.
