

Application to have credit revoked

This form is to be used by current Monash University students to apply to have previously awarded credit removed from your academic record.

This includes credit transfer for previous study or Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).

Monash College students should not use this form.

General information

When applying to have previously awarded credit revoked, an original or certified copy of your credit notification letter should be attached to this form.

You will receive written notification from your faculty regarding the outcome of your credit application. Applicants should enrol in units with the assumption that credit has not been revoked until notified otherwise.

Credit policy and procedures

For more information, including the University policy and procedures on credit (including Recognition of Prior Learning), see: monash.edu/admissions/credit

Faculties may also have specific policies on credit transfer and RPL. Please refer to faculty websites and the Handbook for relevant faculty policies. See: monash.edu.au/pubs/handbooks/facultyinfo.html

Course advice

Before completing this form, we strongly recommended you seek course advice from your faculty to ensure that the revoking of credit does not affect course progression.

Submitting your application

Single degree programs

Caulfield, Clayton, Gippsland, Parkville and Peninsula campuses – submit form to your faculty office on your home campus.

Business and Economics graduates – submit form to your department.

Information Technology students – submit to your school office on your home campus.

International students (Australian campuses) – a request to have credit revoked may affect your course duration. In such cases your faculty will notify you with the revised course end date and the change will be reported to the Department of Home Affairs (HA).

Double degree programs

Applications to have credit revoked in a double degree program must be made to the managing faculty (to check the managing faculty of a degree, see monash.edu/study/courses).

Where the application seeks to have credit revoked for units within the partner faculty's area of the course, the application will be sent for assessment by the managing faculty to the partner faculty.

Privacy statement

The information on this form is collected for the purposes of assessing your application to have credit revoked.
