Keynote speaker

Paul Naismith

Paul Naismith is the CEO of FRED IT Group, a company he cofounded with colleague Rod Unmack in 1992. Today, the company is Australia's largest IT solutions provider to pharmacy.

Paul is a firm believer in finding new ways to support pharmacy with communications and technology initiatives that advance the profession.

FRED has developed a range of innovative IT products to support the complete business needs of the pharmacy industry including dispensing, retail, ordering, and business management. This includes pioneering the development of FRED Dispense, a user friendly, flexible and safe dispensing software that has become the dispensing software choice for more than half of all Australian pharmacies.

Paul's ongoing work in the pharmacy sector has resulted in substantial innovations that form part of eHealth, a Commonwealth Government program that will enable healthcare professionals to access electronic health records, share knowledge and improve medication, safety and therapy outcomes for patients.

Paul is acknowledged nationally by his peers as a leader in the field of IT for pharmacy and the broader health system.
