POLICY STATEMENT

1. Acceptable and Unacceptable Use of IT
   1.1. University IT resources must be used in a lawful, ethical and responsible manner, and in accordance with the Information Technology Acceptable Use Procedures, IT Security Framework, other applicable University policies, and any additional terms of use that may apply to particular software or services.
   1.2. University IT resources are provided for use in the academic, administrative, commercial and community activities of the University. Some reasonable non-commercial personal use may be allowed, but as a privilege and not a right, and if that privilege is abused it will be treated as a breach of this Policy.
   1.3. Account holders must take all reasonable steps to protect their account from unauthorised use.
   1.4. Use of University IT resources or BYOD must not jeopardise the fair, secure, and productive IT environment of the University community, nor the University's operations, assets, data integrity or reputation.
   1.5. Users must not install or use unlicensed or malicious software on University IT or BYOD, nor circumvent the University's IT security measures.
   1.6. Users are expected to report actual or suspected breaches of this Policy or other malicious activity that may be a threat to the security of University IT in a timely manner.

2. Breaches of this Policy and its Procedures
   2.1. Breaches of this Policy and its procedures may result in suspension of access to University IT resources.
2.2. Monash students will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the disciplinary procedures contained under Monash University Part 7 Student Discipline of Monash University (Council) Regulations.

2.3. Monash University Staff will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the disciplinary procedures contained in the Monash University Enterprise Agreement or the relevant AWA Terms and Benefits Policy and the Monash University Workplace Policies and Procedures as amended from time to time.

2.4. Other Authorised Users not related to Monash University may be subject to appropriate action as determined by the University. Such action may include but is not limited to; sanctions and/or removal of access to Monash University IT Resources.

2.5. Breaches of this Policy and its procedures may also be reported to external parties as required under law.
