

MASTER OF ADVANCED CLINICAL NURSING MENTAL HEALTH NURSING

Smart minds think graduate study in mental health at Monash. The field of mental health nursing is rewarding and challenging. As a mental health nurse you will support the recovery of people suffering from a wide range of mental health disorders and emotional distress. This program will build your knowledge in key areas of mental health and equip you with the latest emerging models of care.

WHY STUDY AT MONASH

- Complete a specialisation in Mental Health in 18 months
- Content developed and delivered by recognised experts
- Flexible delivery modes of learning
- Study by all coursework or combine coursework and a minor thesis
- Elective units allow you to meet your career aspirations
- Network with like-minded nurses wanting to advance their clinical practice
- Access to a world class library at its resources to aid your learning.

COURSE CONTENTS INCLUDE

-
- NUR5215 Mental health nursing concepts and practice
-
- NUR5228 Theories and philosophies of mental health nursing
-
- NUR5229 Challenges and controversies in mental health nursing practice
-
- NUR5008 Contemporary psychotherapies for nurses
OR
NUR5227 Integrated mental health care
-

This specialisation can be taken by coursework or a combination of coursework and research.

COMMONWEALTH SUPPORTED PLACES (CSP) AVAILABLE

Now has never been a better time to further your career with a number of Commonwealth Supported Places (CSP)*. This means your fees could be partially covered by the Federal Government!

*CSP availability limited, therefore not guaranteed.

STUDYING AT MONASH UNIVERSITY AUSTRALIA

Studying at Monash University means studying at one of the world's top 100 universities. And we are the only Australian member of the prestigious M8 Alliance of academic health centres and medical universities.

Your studies at Monash Nursing and Midwifery will be in partnership with the widest range of health care academics, with links to multiple professional bodies – we ensure your education is current and in-line with the latest in evidence-based practice.

A graduate degree from Monash Nursing and Midwifery enables you to achieve so much, both personally and professionally. You will be at the forefront of the next generation of nursing and midwifery leaders, challenging preconceptions and leading the way in new techniques, evidence-based practice and innovative ways of working.

For further information visit monash.edu/medicine/nursing

MASTER OF ADVANCED CLINICAL NURSING

Advanced and highly flexible, this course is designed to prepare you, a registered nurse, with leadership skills, to plan, implement, coordinate and evaluate health care, as well as formulate policy for a diverse and multicultural society.

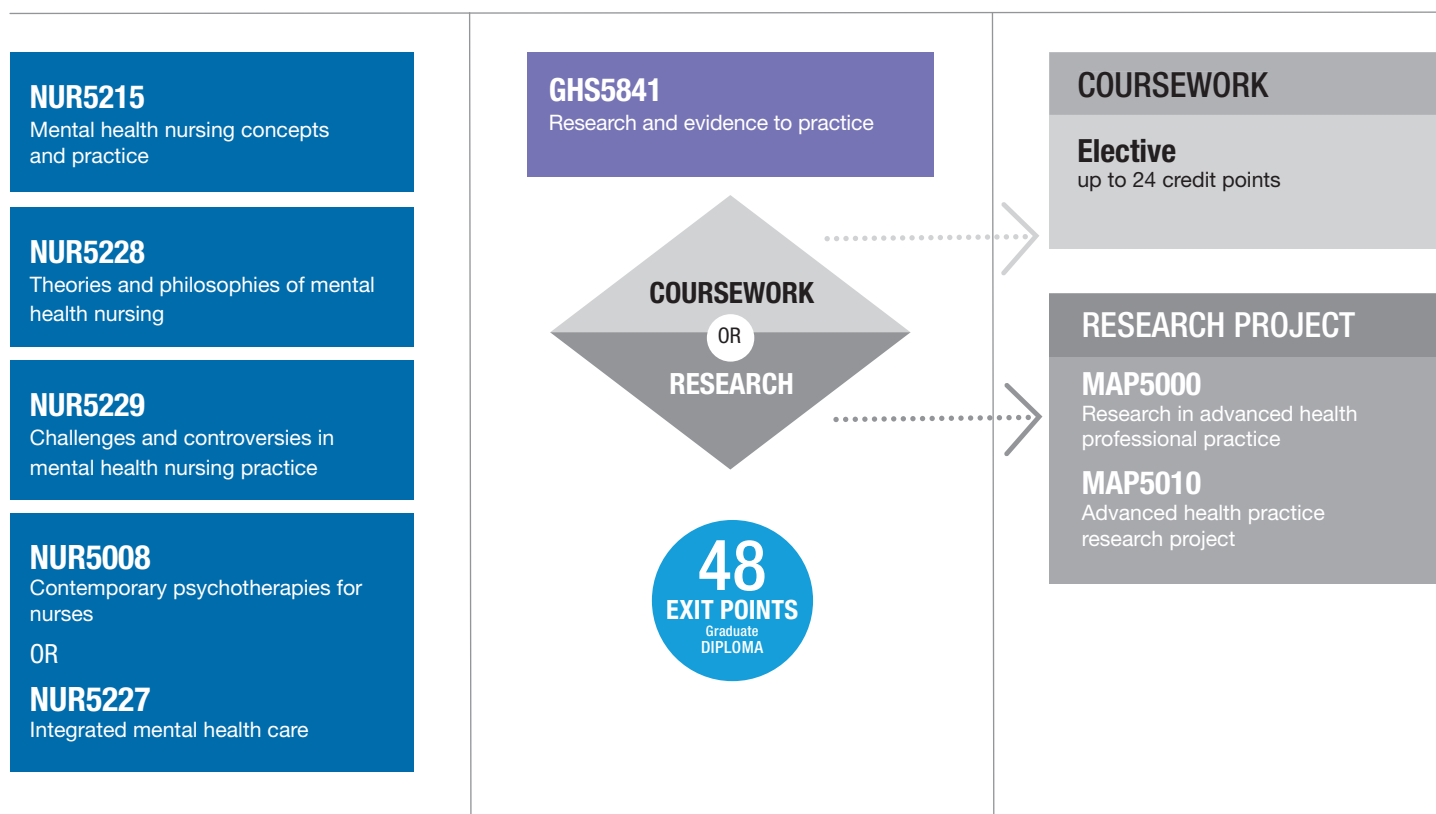

On completion of the Master of Advanced Clinical Nursing, you will be equipped to contribute to the health of individuals, families, communities and the development of the profession.

EXIT POINTS

Students wishing to exit this course may also apply to graduate with one of the following, provided they have satisfied the requirements for the award:

- Graduate Diploma of Advanced Clinical Nursing

COURSEWORK PATHWAY

ELECTIVE LIST

For a list of approved electives for the Master of Advanced Clinical Nursing, please refer to:

<http://www.monash.edu/pubs/2019handbooks/courses/M6031.html>

Students may elect to enrol in units from other Schools and Faculties within the University, with permission of the Master of Advanced Clinical Nursing (MACN) convener.