Student Internships

2. Monash and the Host will agree for a Student to undertake an Internship with the Host on the terms set out in this Agreement.
3. No Internship will commence until the Host approves arrangements for the Internship as evidenced by a completed Internship Schedule Details.

Responsibilities of Monash

4. Once Monash approves a Student to undertake an Internship with the Host, Monash will:
 - (a) Arrange for the Student to sign the Student Acknowledgement in the form of Schedule 2 or as otherwise agreed between the Host and Monash, and provide a copy to the Host;
 - (b) Take steps to prepare the Student for the Internship including orientation about any likely significant cultural differences;
 - (c) Arrange for the Student to attend at the Host Premises for the Internship to undertake the Internship Activities;
 - (d) Provide academic supervision for the assessable work produced by the Student;
 - (e) Make available the Monash Supervisor to monitor the progress of the Internship and address any issues or concerns arising during the Internship raised by the Host Supervisor, the Student or Monash;
 - (f) Upon request by the Host, take reasonable steps to seek permission from the Student for the Host to use any intellectual property produced by the Student as part of the Internship Activities;
 - (g) Ensure there is in place for the benefit of the Student personal accident insurance, and travel insurance for an international internship;
 - (h) Keep confidential all information of the Host included in any assessment material prepared by the Student as part of the Internship or any associated academic assessment and any other information from the Host, where the Host provides notice that the information is confidential information;
 - (i) Withdraw the Student from the Internship at any time Monash forms any concerns that are not able to be satisfactorily resolved for the Student's safety or wellbeing or for any other reason;
 - (j) Provide to the Host Supervisor a template internship assessment form to complete at the conclusion of the Internship.

Responsibilities of the Host

5. Once the Host approves a Student to undertake the Internship, the Host will:
- (a) Arrange for the Host Supervisor, or nominee, to meet the Student on the first day of the Internship and allocate Internship Activities as learning opportunities for the Student;
 - (b) Prior to the Student commencing the Internship Activities, ensure the Student is provided with all reasonably necessary instructions, training and personal protective equipment to undertake the Internship Activities in a safe manner without risk to health and cooperate with Monash at all times to safeguard the Student's health and wellbeing;
 - (c) Ensure that the Internship Activities undertaken by the Student are supervised by the Host Supervisor or another suitably qualified nominee;
 - (d) Permit the Student to use information gathered during the Internship for inclusion in any assessment prescribed by Monash for the Internship and alert the Student to any aspect of that information that is confidential, so that the Student may take steps to ensure the confidentiality of the information is maintained;
 - (e) Ensure that the Student is treated at all times with respect and dignity, and is not subject to discrimination, harassment or bullying;
 - (f) Not use or disclose personal information of the Student or related to the Internship except where necessary for the purpose of the conduct of the Internship and subsequent reporting to Monash;
 - (g) Notify the Monash Contact if the Host seeks permission to use any intellectual property produced by the Student as part of the Internship Activities, and make use of it subject to the measures clause 5(h);
 - (h) Not rely on any material produced by or information provided by or output of the activities of the Student during the Internship without independent expert verification of its accuracy and reliability, in recognition that the student has no qualifications and is participating in a learning experience;
 - (i) Notify the Monash Contact not later than the next business day of:
 - a. any significant change to the Internship Activities or their location;
 - b. any issues or concerns related to the conduct of the Internship, the behaviour of the Student and any matters of discipline, allowing time for intervention by Monash to seek to address and/or remedy any such issues or concerns;
 - c. any decision by the Host to direct the Student not to return to the Host Premises and to terminate the Internship;
 - d. any safety incident affecting the health or wellbeing of the Student and measures put in place to respond to the incident.
 - (j) Complete a template Internship assessment form provided by Monash within 21 days of completion of the Internship;
 - (k) Have in place at all times during the Internship a valid and current policy of public liability and professional indemnity insurance.

MONASH UNIVERSITY OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

This policy applies to the activities of Monash University and we encourage our partner host companies to reflect occupational health and safety practices that emulate our commitment to a safe working environment.

Monash University is committed to providing employees, students, contractors and visitors with a healthy and safe environment. The University strives to integrate health and safety into all aspects of its activities through:

- Implementing and maintaining a framework that ensures the systematic management of health and safety throughout all work sites of Monash University and compliance with legal and other requirements; and
- Aiming to control higher risk activities and increasing awareness of health and safety through education.

Our principal goal is to improve health and safety and to prevent workplace injuries and illnesses at the University.

The University promotes a proactive health and safety management philosophy based on effective communication and consultation and the systematic identification, assessment and control of hazards.

We expect our partner host organisations will have suitable OH&S policies in place to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all students participating in an internship.
