The Master of Indigenous Business Leadership is a postgraduate award. The course is designed to attract high achieving or emerging Indigenous Australian leaders. Graduates will have the skills to produce innovative and multi-disciplinary solutions in dynamic business environments and a diverse global context.

The course has a strong emphasis on personal and organisational leadership. Students have an opportunity to advance their theory and practice by undertaking an industry research project or a leadership study program.

Course delivery

The course delivery is tailored to suit the needs of professionals. It is run on a part time basis. Units are delivered in six day blocks to form intensive periods of class time.

The course is Indigenous-led, with all units co-delivered by Indigenous leaders and Monash Business School and William Cooper Institute.

This transformational leadership program has been designed to strengthen and add capacity to the Indigenous professional workforce in both the public and private sector in Australia.
Course structure

The Master of Indigenous Business Leadership is taught over 2 years and covers leadership essentials and the integration of theoretical knowledge to the business environment through the practical application of your studies, including guest lectures and industry case studies with Indigenous owned businesses. In your second year, you will have an opportunity to undertake an industry research project or a leadership study program.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Part A.</th>
<th>Part B.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Indigenous business leadership essentials (36 credit points)</td>
<td>Indigenous business leadership advanced theory and practice (12 credit points)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You must complete the following six units:</td>
<td>You must complete one of the following units:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>– ADA5222 Indigenous design thinking and relationality</td>
<td>– BEX5504 Indigenous business leadership study program</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>– BEX5501 Leadership: People and performance</td>
<td>– BEX5505 Industry research project</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>– BEX5502 Leadership: Organisational strategy and performance</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>– BEX5503 Business environment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>– BEX5506 Accounting and finance for business leaders</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>– LAWS348 Indigenous rights and international law</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Eligibility

This masters program is offered exclusively to Indigenous Australians.

To qualify for the course, the following entrance requirements must be satisfied:

– Aboriginality and/or Torres Strait Islander heritage
– minimum English language proficiency requirements, normally demonstrated through a combination of previous study and work experience
– completion of an Australian bachelor degree or equivalent in a cognate discipline; and – a minimum of three years work experience with at least one year of professional/managerial experience.

Course fees and financial assistance

Commonwealth supported places (CSP) are available.

CSP fee 2023: A$15,142*
48 credit points

Accommodation costs in Melbourne are covered in your course fees. Airfares, food and beverage and incidentals are not included in your course fees.

Scholarships are available. Scan here for further details.
monash.edu/learning-teaching/kummargi-yulendj

* The student contribution amount for 2024 is yet to be confirmed by the Australian Government.

Location

Face-to-face classes are taught from the Monash Caulfield campus in Melbourne.

Monash is committed to teaching in an environment that allows students to interact, collaborate and share experiences.

Contact us

To learn more about this program, please contact Katrina Johnson, Senior Lecturer, Monash Business School.

E: katrina.johnson@monash.edu

For more information please visit: monash.edu/indigenous-business-leadership

We acknowledge the Traditional Owners and Custodians of the lands on which we live and work and pay respects to Elders past, present and future. ‘Story of Recognition of Our Royalty’ artwork by Lyn-Al Young and Robert Young.

monash.edu/business

The information in this flyer was correct at the time of publication (September 2023). Monash University reserves the right to alter this information should the need arise. You should always check with the relevant faculty office when considering a course. CRICOS provider: Monash University 00008C.