A big welcome to Monash Parkville! We’re small in comparison to other Monash campuses, but we make up for it in friendliness, community and location.

We encourage you to get out and around campus and enhance your study experience with us. This neat pocket-size booklet serves as a handy tool on what to see, eat and do in and around Parkville.

Also, don’t forget the website is a great resource with links to academic and administrative services as well as other Monash wellbeing and support services.
