

Undergraduate Orientation and Meet Your Course Director Caulfield

Wednesday 27 February 2019

For all Monash Business School single or double degree students based at Caulfield campus. Please attend the orientation session for your course.

Double degree students: where possible, it is recommended that you also attend your other Faculty's academic orientation program.

The Monash Business School Orientation Program gives you the tools to reach your full potential at university. You'll meet your Course Director, learn what's expected of you as an undergraduate student and be introduced to the services that will make life at uni easier. Orientation is a great opportunity to meet other students and get to know your way around campus. It offers a variety of social and academic activities to help you get settled in and maximise your student experience.
