

Cross-institutional Study Application

If you're a student at another tertiary institution in Australia or New Zealand, you can apply to study at Monash University and get credit towards your course at your home institution. For Commonwealth supported place (CSP) eligibility, fees, application closing dates and other important information, go to cross-institutional study.

When you apply, you need to provide a copy of your academic record (transcript) from your home institution, proof of completing prerequisite units (if applicable) and meeting the faculty's minimum English language requirements – Section 3.4 \(pdf\), as well as a copy of your passport showing your visa or citizenship status.

Make sure to ask the faculty teaching the unit if there are any other entry requirements.
