

Co-designing a Living Evidence Architecture

Workshop 2: Understanding the needs of our region

20 - 21 May 2025
Jakarta, Indonesia

36
Participants
17 in-person
19 online

10
Countries
Indonesia, Thailand, Philippines, India, Malaysia, South Korea, China, New Zealand, Switzerland, Australia

4
WHO Offices
Western Pacific Region (WPRO), South-East Asia Region (SEARO), WHO Country Office, Indonesia & WHO HQ, Geneva

Representation

Organisations and Universities

- Ministries of Health: Indonesia, Malaysia, South Korea
- Asian Medical Students Association
- Gadjah Mada University, Congan University, RCSI & UCD Malaysia
- Cochrane: Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia, New Zealand
- National Evidence-based Healthcare Collaborating Agency
- Faculty of Medicine Universitas Indonesia
- Evidence-Based Medicine Center of Lanzhou University
- Institute of Clinical Epidemiology, National Institutes of Health, University of the Philippines
- Monash University: Australia, Indonesia

Expertise

Valuable stories and insights

- Health financing and capacity building
- Research, Data Science Programs
- Primary care and health promotion
- Paediatrics, Neonatology, Epidemiology, Nursing
- Living Evidence Methods Experts
- System research and policy development

Key topics

In-depth discussions

- How to support evidence-based health decision making in the region
- Ideating on tools that could automate, personalise and enhance the user experience
- Potential of a technology supported platform for the region
- Features that could solve particular problems, giving health professionals and policy-makers the technology platform that they need