

Section D: Students with disabilities

Do you have a disability, impairment or long term-medical condition that may affect your studies?

Yes No

If yes, Monash will require medical documentation from a relevant treating professional outlining the impact of your condition on your ability to meet the academic demands in the university environment. Disclosure of disability is treated confidentially and will not be used to disadvantage you. The Disability Liaison Unit at Monash may contact you to discuss the services available. For more information, visit www.adm.monash.edu/sss/equity-diversity/disability-liaison.

Section E: English language proficiency

You must provide proof of your English proficiency to the required standard of your chosen course. There are a number of ways to satisfy these requirements. For details, visit www.monash.edu/study/international/apply/entry-requirements-english.html. Some of the main pathways are:

English as the language of instruction:

You have studied in an institution where English is the language of instruction and assessment for the entire institution. Applicants are required to provide evidence from the institution on certified letterhead and signed by the institution's registrar.

Studying English at Year 12 or equivalent

Please indicate below if you have studied one or more of the following:

- Australian or New Zealand Year 12 qualifications (HSC, VCE, IB)
- MUFY or other recognised Australian foundation year
- Monash College Diplomas
- Other Please specify: _____

IELTS/TOEFL: Attach original results or documents (request results to be sent to Monash University by testing centres).

Please note that only results achieved within the two years prior to the course commencement date will be considered. If you have not yet sat an IELTS/TOEFL exam please indicate when you will sit one below.

Please note: The Australian Government sometimes requires proof of English proficiency for visa applications. You should ensure that any test you take meets those requirements also. Visit: www.immi.gov.au/students.

Section K: Privacy and student declaration

General privacy statement:

The information collected on this form is used to assess your application for entry to a Monash University course. It is also used to create an enrolment record on the student database, to prepare statistical analysis and to inform you about your course and other university course/events. If you do not complete all the questions on this form, it may not be possible to process your application. Personal information may be collected from or disclosed to relevant bodies for the verification of your previous qualifications, and it may be disclosed to government agencies (eg DIAC), as required by legislation or pursuant to obligations under ESOS Act 2000 and the National Code or for your visa application. Information may be shared with the registered agent you appoint to assist with your application for entry or visa processing. You have the right to access personal information that Monash University holds about you, subject to legislation, by contacting the Monash University privacy officer at sss.privacy@monash.edu.

Privacy legislation only applies to students who study in Australia. Due to privacy regulations we are unable to disclose information to any other third parties such as friends, relatives and parents.

All documents provided to Monash University become the property of the University and will not be returned to you.

Declaration

I warrant that the information on this form, or provided in support of my application, is correct and complete. I acknowledge that the provision of incorrect information or the withholding of relevant information relating to my application, including academic transcript/s, might invalidate my application and that the University may withdraw an offer of a place or cancel my enrolment in consequence. Should the University determine that I have submitted a false document, I consent to the University disclosing this information to other relevant tertiary institutions.

I consent to any educational institution at which I have previously been a student and/or my current or any past employer, providing Monash University with information which that institution or employer holds about me for the purpose of Monash verifying my grades and/or qualifications or experience.

I agree to abide by the statutes, regulations and policies of Monash University.

I have read and understood the above conditions and accept them in full.
