Dr Diane Kraal, Monash Business School
Energy Justice principles: availability, affordability, due process, transparency and accountability, sustainability, intra- and inter-generational equity, and responsibility.

Aim of policy and taxation aspects of study

To re-think government policies that would encourage investment in innovative biofuels research toward economic and environmentally sustainable outcomes.
Natural Gas Taxation:
Energy justice, the Dutch gas market hub and lessons for Australia’s integrated gas projects

Presenter:
Dr Diane Kraal
Monash University, Australia

Co-authors:
Professor Machiel Mulder
Mr Peter Perey, University of Groningen, the Netherlands
Petroleum industry tax incentives and energy policy implications:
A comparison between Australia, Malaysia, Indonesia and Papua New Guinea

Presenter:
Dr Diane Kraal
Monash University
The Just Transition Conference
Edinburgh, 1-2 March 2018
Integrated Gas-to-Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) Projects: Government revenues in Australia and industry concerns

Source: Chevron