

RICHARD BELL

LESSONS ON ETIQUETTE AND MANNERS

5 FEBRUARY - 13 APRIL 2013

Professor Shane Murray, Chair, and Geraldine Barlow, Acting Director, MUMA, cordially invite you to the opening of Richard Bell: Lessons on Etiquette and Manners.

OPENING SATURDAY 9
FEBRUARY 2013 3-5PM

With opening remarks at 3.30pm by Gary Foley, Indigenous Lecturer, Moondani Balluk Academic Unit, Victoria University

Richard Bell in conversation at 4pm

Richard Bell: Lessons on Etiquette and Manners is the artist's first in-depth presentation in Melbourne. Working with humour and agit-prop activism, Bell's writings, paintings and videos instruct his audience on the assumptions and false histories surrounding race politics in Australia.

PUBLIC PROGRAMS

MADA Lunchtime Art Forum:
Richard Bell

Wednesday 13 March 12.30pm
G1.04, Monash Art, Design & Architecture Monash University
Caulfield

Bell will present a major new installation, based on the original Aboriginal Tent Embassy in Canberra in 1972, in which he has invited radical political leaders to speak over the course of the exhibition.
