1. These regulations may be cited as the Monash-Hicks Postgraduate Research Scholarship in Indonesian History regulations.

2. In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears:

   'the committee' means the committee established by section 4;

   'the fund' means the Monash-Hicks Postgraduate Research Scholarship in Indonesian History Fund created with the sum of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) given to the university by Mr George L Hicks to be held and applied by the university in accordance with these regulations which have been approved by the donor as prescribing the terms and conditions for the administration and application of the fund.

3. The capital of the fund shall be invested by the university and so much of the income as is required shall be used to enable a scholar to pursue full-time higher degree research as an enrolled student in the Department of History at Monash University.

4. The scholar must be a citizen of the Republic of Indonesia.

5. The scholarship shall be awarded at first instance to a postgraduate student who is eligible for admission as a candidate for the degree of Master of Arts and who is also the holder of a Monash Graduate Scholarship.

6. The scholar's research must fall within the general field of Indonesian history.

7. There shall be a committee consisting of a chairman, being the professor of history specialising in Indonesian history or that professor's nominee, the research director of the Centre of Southeast Asian Studies and one other professor with an interest in Indonesian history.

8. The committee shall:

   8.1 call for applications for the scholarship in such manner as the committee thinks fit;

   8.2 consider the applications received and award the scholarship on and subject to the conditions hereby prescribed and such further conditions as the committee thinks fit provided that for any year the committee may decide to make no award if it considers there is no suitable applicant or to share the award between more than one applicant; and
8.3 generally do such other things as are required for the purpose of these regulations.

9. The scholarship shall be tenable for one year, with renewal subject to section 10 and the scholar making progress in his or her studies to the satisfaction of the chairman of the committee or, in the chairman's absence, of the chairman at the time of the Department of History.

10. Subject to these regulations and within the amount of income available,

10.1 the committee shall pay from the fund the full overseas fee payable for the course; and

10.2 the committee may extend the scholarship for a further year for a candidate continuing his or her study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy and may impose any conditions it thinks fit upon the tenure of the scholarship and the payment of the stipend.

11. The scholar shall provide regular reports on the progress of work to the scholar's supervisor.

12. Council may from time to time amend or re-make these regulations provided it is satisfied that the fund and the name thereof shall continue to be held and applied in accordance with the purposes specified in the said gift.
